- Parent contacted by HT if internal exclusion longer than 2 hours (or if after-school detention as parent must collect after 30-45 minutes)
- Classwork to be completed under supervision away from the classroom
- Opportunity given to discuss sanction and strategies to improve

Fixed-term exclusion (suspension) (HT only)

- Parent contacted to remove pupil from school
- Work provided for every full day of exclusion (marked by school)
- Pupil must not attend a public place during school hours
- For exclusions longer than 5 days, the child must temporarily attend an alternative education setting (organised by Mr. Jackson (HT))

Parenting contract (HT with governors only)

- The Governing Body may offer a parenting contract for any pupil excluded twice in one term to promote improvement

Permanent exclusion (subject to appeal)

PINK CARD – all classes have a pink card which can be sent to Mr. Jackson with a sensible child if a pupil is posing an immediate danger to themselves or others, or is causing significant disruption to the learning environment. It is the Head Teacher's decision as to the consequence or appropriate action at this point. Disruptive pupils are not to be sent directly to the Head Teacher other than in exceptional circumstances.

Any of the steps in this diagram can be bypassed depending on individual circumstances.
