To the Monthly Meeting

This committee has continued since its formation to meet on the first first-day in each month, to appoint Librarians, to order books, & to attend to any business connected with the care of the Library -

About twelve months since, a donation was recd from the Yearly Meetings Committee of several valuable works, which from their being out of print or other circumstances could not be easily procured - In order further to increase our supply of books & with a view thereby to excite in the minds of friends a more general interest in the Institution, a fund was raised in the course of the past year by means of subscriptions which are to be continued annually. The amt then recd to $6.7.0 has been appropriated to the purchase of interesting new publications, the writings of Friends, such as have been approved of by this committee

Thos Abbott having a likelihood to dispose of a copy of "Barclay's Apology" in German it is agreed to leave him at liberty to do so.
