

P91    Donated by Michael Kennedy.

P91 is a miscellaneous collection of photographs of Limerick from the 1930s to the 1980s. They were donated to Limerick City Archives, by Michael Kennedy. There is also one poem dealing with the history of the Sarsfield Band.

P91/1

Group photo of mill workers, the men are holding, the then well known Mazovim sack of animal feed. The mill workers were probably employed at the, City Mill, which was located on Roches Street and was owned by Ranks Ireland Ltd.

C 1935

1 item

P91/2

A Shannon Mills (Ranks) social event. In the photo are several members of the Copues family and seated, first from the right is Joe Rank, one of the Rank Family.

c.1955

1 item

P91/3

A group photo of Limerick mill worker. Some of the men are wearing aprons made out of jute bags- frequently used in the packing of milled products.

c.1920

1 item.

P91/4

A photograph of a street in the Watergate area of the city,-some of the ruined medieval city walls are believed to be shown. The houses are all since demolished.

c. 1940

1 item.

P91/5 A Limerick Football Team. The photo was probably taken in Cork City.

c. 1950.

1 item.

P91/6

Photograph of Limerick's Sarsfield Band, where the band is parading on an unknown occasion, on O'Connell Street. In the background can be seen the Coliseum Cinema, now the Belltable Arts Centre.

c.1960s.

1 item.

P91/7

A poem entitled The Sarsfield Band by Jack MacManus. The poem tells the history of the band and the many prize it won down the years. The poem also tells of the impact of historic events such as World War One on the band and its members.

30 July 1977.

3 pp.

P91/8/1

Photograph of Mary Scanlon, standing by a car in Thomond Row. The cottages in the background have all been demolished.

1957.

1 item.

P91/8/2

A picture of Thomond Row, Limerick.. The cottages were demolished some years after this photograph was taken.

c 1980.

1 item.

P91/9

Photograph of row of houses in the Watergate area. The white painted building in the left of the picture had once been a cinema. The caravan in the right of the picture was occupied by an elderly lady.

c. 1960.

1 item.

P91/10/1

Photograph of John Street.

c 1985.

1 item.

P91/10/2

Photo of John Hassett's Public House John Street.

c 1985.

1 item.

P91/10/3

Fire at John Street with fire brigade in attendance

c 1985.

1 item.

P91/11

Photograph of houses prior to their demolition on Sheep Street in the St Francis Abbey area of Limerick City.

c. 1985.

1 item.

P91/12/1

Photograph of Merchant's Quay and Newgate Street taken from Nicholas Street. The area has since been extensively redeveloped.

c. 1980.

1 item.

P91/12/2

Photograph of street- in the Island Road area, this area has since been extensively redeveloped.

c 1980.

1 item.

P91/13/1

Photograph of Plassy House.

c 1980

item.

P91/13/2

Photograph of Plassy House.

c 1980.

1 item.

P91/13/3

Photograph of entrance to Plassy House.

c. 1980.

1 item.

P91/14

Group photograph of unidentified individuals.

c 1950s.

1 item.