

Shiva's blessing

Once you received Shivas energy
You are very quiet.
A man of peace.
That is the maximum.

You are in bliss all the time.
You are really in bliss.
It is beyond elightenment.
There is no word for it.

It is the feeling of
Really starving for something
And then you got it.
In that moment you don't need anything more.

You are free.

You were super thirsty.
You drank and done.
If I ask you in that moment,
If you wanted more water,
You would say: ,No thank you!'.
What else do you need?
