

JOB DESCRIPTION

Real Estate Graduate Programme

Organisation name: Deloitte

Job title: Real Estate Graduate Programme

Reports to: Head of Department

Role responsibility

We want to be the undisputed leader in professional services and we already use our property expertise to deliver outstanding financial and business advice across a variety of sectors. Whether it's advising global firms on their property portfolios or planning a new transport system, you will be involved at all stages of the process. Help our clients to buy and sell property, prepare planning applications and create places where people want to work. We're redefining the concept of real estate and you can be a part of that.

As part of the graduate programme, you will have the opportunity to work in three departments before specialising in a particular area. You will work on a variety of different projects to resolve complex problems for our clients.

Real Estate Advisory:

- Develop your surveying skills and demonstrate your property market knowledge.
- Collaborate with colleagues in Development and Valuation and Assurance and Professional Advisory.
- Provide financial and business advice.

Real Estate Town Planning:

- Implement town planning and housing regeneration schemes.
- Work with clients at a strategic level.

Real Estate Consulting:

- Deliver an outstanding service to a variety of different clients, including property owners, corporate occupiers and government investors.
- Provide specialist advice and support with consultative and transaction services.

Qualifications and skills

- Have a 2:1 in any degree discipline.
- Analytically minded, can easily interpret data.
- Demonstrates a customer focused approach.
- An innovative thinker with excellent problem-solving capabilities.
- Takes ownership and enjoys a high level of responsibility.
- Strong team player.
- Works well under pressure and meets challenging deadlines.
- Committed to driving your development.
