History of Sevillian aristocracy

Mercer Residences Sevilla is housed in the Marquises of Nervi3n former mansion, a 17th century manor house, considered one of the hundred best buildings in Seville and refurbished to adapt to the 21st century without losing its character.

This 2.000sqm mansion was owned by the widowed Marchioness of Nervi3n -grandee of Spain and lady of Queen Victoria Eugenia-.

Prominent personalities of the 20th century such as Princes Grace Kelly and Rainier of Monaco; Jacqueline Onassis, Carmen Polo or Mar3a de las Mercedes de Borb3n y Orleans -grandmother of Felipe VI King of Spain- walked through its central courtyard and gardens.

A palace for your events

Mercer Residences Sevilla offers different iconic spaces in the Casa Palacio for private events organisation.

The main courtyard, the romantic patio and the rooftop terrace are perfect scenarios for hosting professional or social celebrations outdoors.
