

BEING ENTERPRISING

Being enterprising means using creativity and innovation to make positive changes, handle uncertainty and risk, and stay resilient when things go wrong. Employers value this fresh thinking, which boosts employability. Being entrepreneurial is about using these skills to launch new business ideas, products, or services.

Opportunity Spotting

- Vision
- Social Enterprise
- Managing Risk
- Strategic Thinking

Resourcefulness

- Creative Problem Solving
- Knowing Strengths & Weaknesses of self & others and how to balance these
- Decision Making and action planning
  - Persuasion and negotiation
  - Managing projects

Resilience

- Confidence
- Learning from experience
- Adapting and being flexible
- Giving and receiving feedback
  - Personal Motivation
  - Positive Emotions
  - Persistence

Opportunities for Being Enterprising

- Careers Readiness Lectures & Workshops
- Careers Readiness Events
- Fundraising Activities
- Developing Links to Business & Industry e.g. Internship
- Graduate Attributes Awards
- Serving as an S.U. Officer