Triumphant

Pride '88

Photographs by Bill Short

THE record-breaking efforts of lesbians and gay men were triumphant again on June 25th when the biggest-ever parade marched through the streets of London for this year's Lesbian and Gay Pride celebrations.

An estimated 29,000 people took part on the march this year, with thousands of others joining a massive festival of sparkling entertainment at London's Jubilee Gardens.

The joyous march passed peacefully through the capital's most famous streets and ended with picnics, pleasure and pride at the main festival site.

Highlight of the day was an exciting performance by pop duo Erasure, with gay vocalist Andy Bell in sizzling form on stage.
