

Housing Information Long Term Programs

There are several Long-Term options available in the South Beach/Miami area for your stay.

As a courtesy, off campus housing recommendations are provided by the New York Film Academy South Beach Housing Office. New York Film Academy South Beach, Florida does not provide dormitory facilities or on campus housing.

The Housing process starts only when students are Accepted into the program and Cleared by Financial Aid and/or Bursar.

Students should expect a range of costs in housing. Average prices start from $1,200 per month for a studio and from $1,500 for a one-bedroom. Cost will depend on the location, size, apartment complex, amenities, and length of stay.

If you are in need of housing, you should contact the South Beach Housing Coordinator to discuss what your options are. Students are strongly advised to find suitable housing prior to their program start date. The landlord or management company will often request proof of income, credit, insurance, and other documents. Prior to making final arrangements or signing a rental agreement, students should thoroughly investigate and inspect any properties, accommodations or other housing options and review any legal document prior to entering a contractual agreement.

New York Film Academy South Beach Housing Office bears no responsibility in any lease or rental agreements signed by students.

Miami is a beautiful place to live with numerous housing options, but be very vigilant when looking for an apartment, as scammers often target individuals not familiar with the area. The risk for renting a non approved short term rental is that you may be evicted from the apartment, lose your money, forfeit your deposit and will have to look elsewhere to rent. The landlord may be fined up to $20,000 per violation as well.

Our Housing Coordinator is the best option to find suitable, legal housing for short term so it is strongly advisable to contact him if you have any housing questions prior to attending the program.
