SUSTAINABILITY

WE'RE GREEN

UCW understands the importance of sustainability to the future of our planet. We are committed to creating a green footprint for the environmental stewardship of our campuses. UCW strives to not only teach sustainability but also to model it through our own actions

CURRICULUM & FACULTY

University Canada West is dedicated to expanding our sustainability footprint through ongoing integration of sustainability throughout our academic offerings. For UCW students, sustainability can be a component of your educational program.

Today, we offer two types of sustainability education:

- Course content within our degree programs; and
- A micro-credential in Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

In addition, several professors at UCW are involved in sustainability research or lead sustainability initiatives as part of their professional practice.

View the full list of sustainability courses on the website at: ucanwest.ca/about/sustainability/academics.

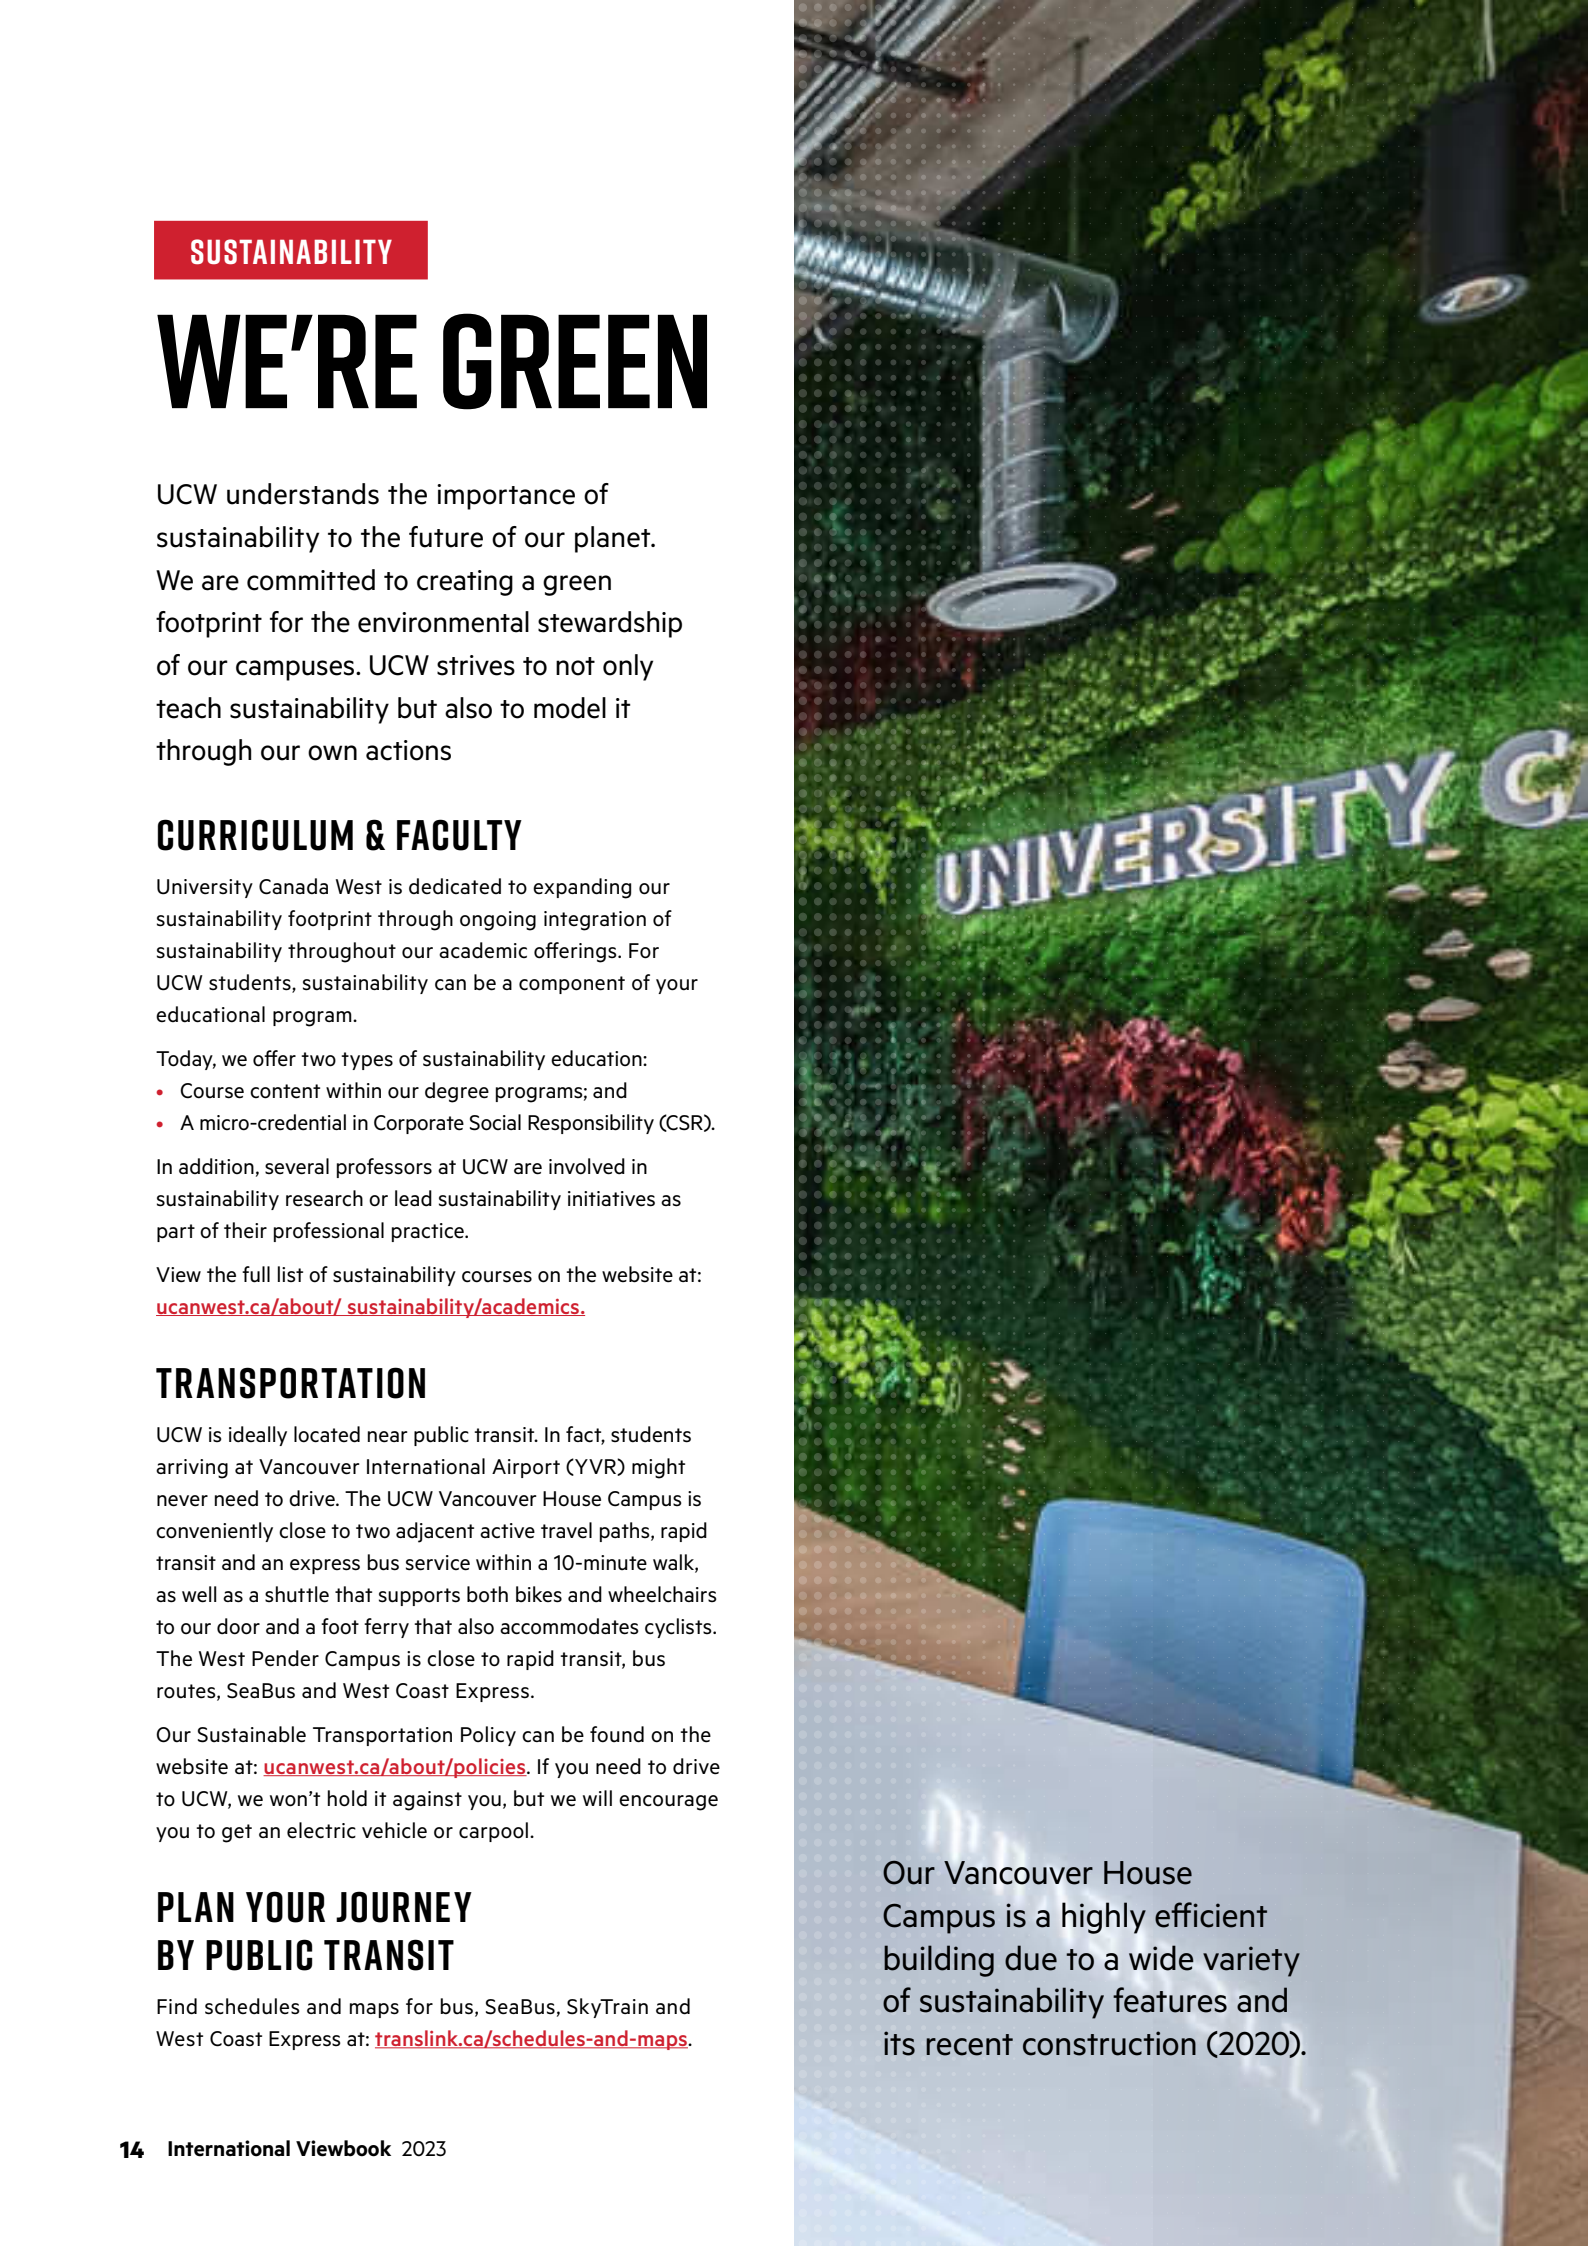

TRANSPORTATION

UCW is ideally located near public transit. In fact, students arriving at Vancouver International Airport (YVR) might never need to drive. The UCW Vancouver House Campus is conveniently close to two adjacent active travel paths, rapid transit and an express bus service within a 10-minute walk, as well as a shuttle that supports both bikes and wheelchairs to our door and a foot ferry that also accommodates cyclists. The West Pender Campus is close to rapid transit, bus routes, SeaBus and West Coast Express.

Our Sustainable Transportation Policy can be found on the website at: ucanwest.ca/about/policies. If you need to drive to UCW, we won't hold it against you, but we will encourage you to get an electric vehicle or carpool.

PLAN YOUR JOURNEY BY PUBLIC TRANSIT

Find schedules and maps for bus, SeaBus, SkyTrain and West Coast Express at: translink.ca/schedules-and-maps.

Our Vancouver House Campus is a highly efficient building due to a wide variety of sustainability features and its recent construction (2020).

FOR THE ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP OF OUR CAMPUSES.

ENERGY

While the campus has a great deal of windows, efficient triple pane glass was used to create a tight envelope or shell to reduce heat loss. Each of UCW's buildings is also well shaded to reduce solar heat gain in the summer. To create optimal insulation, bird habitat and a pleasing aesthetic, each of our buildings are topped with green roofs. The buildings are on a district energy system for both heating and cooling. All of the lighting within our campus is light emitting diode (LED) technology and we selected classroom AV and kitchen appliances for energy efficiency. All parking spots in our underground parking are wired for EV chargers.

Tips: Help us conserve energy to reduce our impact on the planet by:

- Turning off lights and appliances when not in use
- Taking the stairs whenever possible (It's better for your health too)

WATER

All of our plumbing fixtures are low flow efficiency rated to reduce water consumption. In the interest of human health, dining facilities are also equipped with additional purification systems. Green roofs control storm water by absorbing rainfall and delay storm water release by emptying excess water to a cistern system before releasing into the city's stormwater sewers.

RECYCLING

When UCW moved to Vancouver House, the University was careful to follow the waste management hierarchy by: Reducing our need for materials, Reusing any materials that we could bring with us, Recycling any packaging and ensuring materials we needed had recycled content and Reclaiming hard to recycle by-products from our purchases.

UCW has an active recycling program. At every dining area, you'll find four product waste receptacles. We separate items that can't be easily recycled from:

- Food waste (organics)
- Containers (plastic, glass and aluminum)
- Wood fiber (paper and cardboard)

If you're not sure what can be recycled, a current list of materials can be found on the Recycling BC website.

Tip: Want to help reduce waste? Start by refusing to use single-use containers. The most common source of avoidable waste is our drinking containers. Carry a reusable mug and water bottle, hydration is also important to your health and studying.

A CAREER DESTINATION

VANCOUVER LABOUR MARKET

The city of Vancouver offers a wealth of study and work opportunities surrounded by wonderful natural beauty. This is truly the ultimate place to be.

Vancouver is British Columbia's major commercial and financial centre, with strong trading transport and economic links to the rest of the world.

Vancouver is also home to some of Canada's top companies, including Amazon, Salesforce and Samsung, meaning UCW students have unparalleled access to a network of prospective employers. The city is home to a number of exciting businesses and a growing startup community. Vancouver ranked second at a national level and 40th at a global level as the best city for startups in 2022 by HelloSafe.

Other key urban centres in British Columbia ideally suited for conducting business include Victoria, Kelowna, Kamloops, Prince George and Nanaimo. Metro Vancouver has an excellent and extensive transportation infrastructure. Vancouver International Airport (YVR) provides direct air services to over 130 destinations in Canada, the United States and around the world, more than 110 of which are non-stop flights.

BRITISH COLUMBIA LABOUR MARKET 2022-2031 FORECAST

From now until 2031, the BC Labour Market Outlook projects 1,004,000 job openings in British Columbia, 369,000 of which will be new jobs created through economic recovery or growth. And 2022 saw one of BC's lowest unemployment rates as nearly 45,000 fewer people were unemployed.

Overall, labour demand is expected to grow faster than supply in BC, resulting in tight labour market conditions where the demand for workers surpasses the supply of workers.

A GROWING DEMAND FOR WORKERS

Canada welcomed more than 346,000 new permanent residents in the first and second quarters of 2022 alone. To ensure the nation has the workers needed to fill critical labour market gaps, the 2022-2024 Immigration Levels Plan aims to continue welcoming immigrants at a rate of about 1% of Canada's population, including 447,055 permanent residents in 2023 and 451,000 in 2024.

EMPLOYMENT AND OPPORTUNITIES

Vancouver is a hub of exciting activities and a city full of great opportunities. You will be able to acquire relevant work experience, which is an important step in launching your career. Many UCW students and graduates are working in or outside Canada, retaining a global presence.

There are many reasons why students want to work globally. It is very common for students, who live and work away from their home country on a permanent basis, to move to a new city or seek a new position while there.

"I obtained employment at a well-known office supply retail giant. UCW's contribution to my job search cannot be understated, and I am extremely grateful for the people and culture at my school!"

PRACTICUMS

BUILD CONNECTIONS WITH POTENTIAL EMPLOYERS

University Canada West builds connections between students and the business community through real-world education and work experiences, including a practicum program for MBA students.

This initiative provides students with the choice of enrolling in WORK 601 – Graduate Practicum as one of four tier-four MBA courses to complete their MBA degree requirements.

Practicum programs provide students with exposure to workplace activities, culture immersion, support application of education and direct skills practices related to the student’s field of study.

A key component of student value with practicums is their ability to increase their connections and network, increasing their job opportunities and career prospects.

For international students, practicums provide critical Canadian work experience before graduating as they demonstrate key MBA competencies and grow skills relevant to their career goals.

“Earning an MBA empowered me. It gave me the knowledge to be where I am in the position I have now. If I didn’t go through the MBA, I would be struggling with terminologies, concepts, structures and frameworks... And it’s not just knowledge. It’s a degree that gives you credibility.”

SURIEL RUIZ

DIGITAL ANALYTICS DEPLOYMENT SPECIALIST AT TECK RESOURCES MBA, ALUMNUS

With a background in geology and engineering, Suriel Ruiz spent seven years working as a consultant in the oil and gas industry in Mexico. However, when the oil crisis hit in 2014, which saw prices plunge by 70% in one of the three biggest declines since World War II, Suriel was forced to reconsider the direction of his career.

“Initially, I was laid off,” he said. “But then there were no projects, so I wasn’t able to return to the company because the oil and gas crisis continued.”

Suriel moved from northern Mexico to the south of the country and took his career in a decidedly different direction.

“I had the opportunity to start my first business, a restaurant and bar. So a pretty big departure from working in oil and gas,” he said with a laugh. “I wanted to try it because I had this feeling inside that I wanted to be an entrepreneur.”

The next year, in 2017, Suriel started a second business venture selling advertising spaces.

But business was tough and with his businesses struggling, Suriel decided it was time to make a change. He said that while he had the heart and spirit of an entrepreneur, he knew he needed more knowledge to be successful.

So, Suriel decided to pursue his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree at University Canada West.

He arrived in the city in the fall of 2019 and started his studies on-campus in the Winter (January) 2020 Term. He graduated in July 2021, but as he entered his last term at UCW, he started looking for work.

And Suriel set his sights high – only applying for jobs at medium to large-sized companies, like KPMG, PWC, Ernst & Young, Deloitte and Teck Resources.

He landed several interviews, and turned down a job offer with another company, before accepting a position as a Digital Analytics Deployment Specialist at Teck Resources, one of Canada’s leading mining companies.

“Earning an MBA empowered me. It gave me the knowledge to be where I am in the position I have now,” Suriel said. “If I didn’t go through the MBA, I would be struggling with terminologies, concepts, structures and frameworks... And it’s not just knowledge. It’s a degree that gives you credibility.”

MEET

PRESIDENT OF ECOCENTURY TECHNOLOGIES AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS FOR ZIPHYCARE MBA, ALUMNA

Kerry Gibson's resumé includes a lengthy list of accomplishments.

She is currently President of EcoCentury Technologies, an engineering and consulting firm promoting clean technologies, and Vice-President of Strategic Partnerships for ZiphyCare, a New York-based health tech company bridging the gap between remote and in-person exams by providing proprietary tools for remote patient triage and scheduling, examination and communication.

She has years of experience in business and corporate operations.

In addition to her work, Kerry serves on the boards of directors for many foundations and organizations, and regularly speaks on platforms in Canada and internationally, including the United Nations, addressing economic development, clean tech innovation, diversity and inclusion and labour rights.

But there was one thing missing. One thing she had always wanted to do – earn a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree.

"It was something I always wanted to do, but I never had time," she said. "I was too busy working."

And then the COVID-19 pandemic hit, and suddenly she wasn't travelling for work or attending networking receptions for various causes and organizations several times a week.

Kerry started University Canada West's online MBA degree program in the Winter (January) 2021 Term.

"That was the great thing about UCW – it really was the only MBA program I could take entirely remotely," she said.

Kerry was able to continue with her many work and volunteer commitments while concurrently earning her MBA. The program's flexibility meant she could fit readings, work on homework and assignments, and complete papers in between Zoom meetings.

Kerry's commitment and determination paid off – just 15 months after starting UCW's MBA program, she graduated with distinction in summer 2022.

"It was interesting, taking an MBA after being in business for so many years," she said. "I already had the practical experience, and it was interesting to see it from an academic perspective."

Kerry said that gaining the academic knowledge has already helped her grow in her current position.

"I was just in Las Vegas for a medical conference where I was the pitch person for ZiphyCare, and because of the knowledge I gained at UCW I was better able to articulate the opportunities for investors to get on board with ZiphyCare."

“The degree really did make a difference. As soon as I could put that I had a degree, I immediately started getting job offers, especially in communications, which is what I wanted to do. So even though I had almost 20 years of experience doing communications, I wasn’t being considered for the majority of communications jobs, only project management jobs.”

MEET

COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST AT BIOLYTICAL LABORATORIES BABC, ALUMNA

After 15 years working in the aviation industry, Stephanie Ritchie knew she was ready for a change.

“When I was 18, I started working at WestJet. I started in the call centre and worked my way up to be an Analyst,” she said.

In 2013, after more than 12 years at WestJet, she moved to the Middle East to work for Qatar Airways as Manager of Planning and Administration, which saw her overseeing planning for all service training for more than 8,000 crew members, among other duties and projects. She was working as Manager – Special Projects and Quality for Qatar Airways when she started thinking about making a career change.

“I just realized that I didn’t love project management,” she said, adding that she started looking at the aspects of her job that she enjoyed the most.

“It came down to communications, essentially, which at the end of the day is the core of pretty much everything.”

Stephanie started researching bachelor degree programs with a focus on communications. She said she knew she wanted to continue working while she completed her degree and quickly found University Canada West’s online Bachelor of Arts in Business Communication.

She started her studies in the Fall (October) 2016 Term.

Stephanie said the online format made it easy for her to balance her studies with her work at Qatar Airlines and allowed her to make several moves without worrying about disrupting her studies.

In 2017, she returned to Canada and WestJet, working as Advisor to the Chief Guest Experience Officer.

She graduated in December 2020 and started applying for jobs in communications. She had three interviews, turned down one offer and accepted a position as Communications Specialist at bioLytical Laboratories – a British Columbia-based leader in the field of rapid in vitro medical diagnostics with a range of tests that provide instant accurate results for infectious diseases including HIV, COVID-19, Hepatitis C and Syphilis.

She moved to Vancouver and started working at bioLytical in May 2021.

As a Communications Specialist, Stephanie heads educational awareness, writes press releases and liaises with the media, handles social media and marketing, as well as emails internal and external stakeholders.

Nearly 18 months into her new career, Stephanie is not looking back and says getting her degree made all the difference.

“It’s been great,” she said. “Getting my degree was the best choice I could have made, to be honest.”

> CENTRE FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE

UCW's Centre for Teaching Excellence aims to recognize and inspire excellence and innovation in curriculum and all aspects of the learning experience for UCW students. The Centre collaborates with UCW's students, faculty, staff and partners to cultivate an engaging and supportive faculty environment through informed dialogue. The Centre for Teaching Excellence staff support faculty to forge new connections and to deepen and expand their knowledge, skills and expertise through creative, innovative and research-driven teaching and technological approaches. In pursuit of teaching excellence, the Centre aims to promote UCW's unique teaching culture and to serve as a resource for faculty as they evolve and build best practices and learner-centred teaching methods.

UCW offers a range of services for students who wish to enrich their UCW experience or require assistance in a variety of areas related to their educational goals and personal pursuits. Our Student Affairs and Academic Affairs staff work together with students to assist, support and develop their academic performance and foster an environment that supports undergraduate and graduate students.

> SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND THE PEER2PEER PROGRAM

UCW's student body is rapidly growing and diversifying. Engaging students in informal and social events play an important role in academic life. Not only does it help shape a student's experience, but it also fosters a sense of community and a culture of understanding and respect. Our Student Affairs department provides opportunities for students to participate in activities and events outside the classroom, coordinated and organized by Student Affairs staff and students from the Peer2Peer Program. The Student Life Team holds different events both virtually and on-campus that provides an opportunity for students to engage. Bi-weekly First Year Friday events are organized by Peer Leaders specifically for new students and include virtual games, or a chance to have a coffee and chat with other new students. Interested students can visit the Student Affairs section in the MyUCW Student Portal for more information about UCW's Peer2Peer Program.

> STUDENT CLUBS

Our students take pride in their leadership and clubs' development. Students can apply to have their student clubs, groups or organizations officially recognized as part of UCW Student Life by contacting Student Affairs. Student groups can include cultural groups, hobbies, advocacy, social justice and much more.

We support students in formal and informal leadership positions through clubs, groups and organizations that are formed by the UCW Community. Taking part in Student Life opportunities as well as participating or leading a student group and advocating for students are great ways to develop a variety of power skills and competencies. It is also one of the best ways to get involved with the UCW Community as well as contribute to the community our students want to build.

UCW currently has more than 20 student clubs, including the Student Music Club, Language Exchange, Sports Club, International Student Club and the UCW Anime Club.

> CENTRE FOR LEARNING SUCCESS

The Centre for Learning Success provides access to evidence-based integrated learning programs designed to support student achievement. A major component is the mandatory Learning for Success workshops. These weekly workshops start in the first week of classes. Every week in the first four weeks of their first term, new students are required to complete a different Learning for Success workshop where they learn about things like academic integrity, improving their academic writing skills, preparing to study for and take exams, and key skills to collaborate successfully.

The Centre for Learning Success then provides ongoing workshops that are available to all UCW students covering key skills such as effective presentations, academic reading, exam strategies and how to actively participate. Students are also able to book one-on-one appointments with a Learning Strategist where they can build their skills toolkits and work on learning what matters the most to them. Writing Coaches are also available.

> CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

University Canada West's Career Development Centre was created to facilitate an engaging partnership with students as they transition from higher education into the workforce environment and beyond. Through these partnerships, the centre bridges the gap between employers' needs and employment opportunities for our students.

Our Career Development Specialists will help you prepare to enter the working world with your best foot forward. Our student-centric services include help with resumés and cover letters, interviewing techniques, networking and various other workshops, career management workshops and career info sessions, on-campus employer info sessions, business social networking and practicum resources, scholarships, volunteer expos and job fairs.

The Career Development Centre includes resources and workshops in group and one-on-one settings, but are not limited to assistance with:
