

Thinking through Early Education and Childcare

Health & Wellbeing

Developing Practical Skills for a Career in Childcare

The course increases your awareness of factors in this sector which can impact the lives of children, parents and carers. You will develop transferable employability skills linked to: understanding of the workplace, self-evaluation skills, flexible approaches to solving problems, gain experience and employability through practical activities.

Skills Focus

Digital Learning

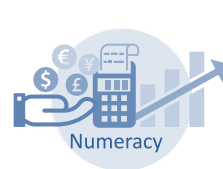

Enterprise

Leadership

Literacy

Numeracy

Thinking

Recognition of Achievement

N4 Early Education in Childcare unit - Play in Early Learning & Childcare

Learning Intentions & Success Criteria

Learning Intentions

I will:

- develop an understanding of a child's development.
- demonstrate how play can help a child develop.
- identify the different career opportunities and routes which can be taken within the early education and childcare sector.

Success Criteria

I can:

- outline how children develop in line with the aspects of development.
- explain how different types of play help a child develop.
- identify different career routes and opportunities within early education and childcare.

Senior Phase Progression

N5 Early Education and Childcare