We are a charity that uses the arts to improve the health & wellbeing of island residents, through tackling social isolation with creative activities.

Our participants are all ages, and our programmes are varied, from arts and crafts, chess, to movement and singing!

We are inclusive and some of our groups are intergenerational. We deliver into care homes, schools, community settings and from our own Creative Hub.

Most of our programmes are free and many are drop-ins with no booking required. For some workshops there is a small charge to cover funding requirements, £3 per week for SingAbout and £5 per week for Move & Groove, for instance.

Please contact the team for more information regarding any of our workshops.
