Prisoners Sunday

Falls on 12 October, & it takes place, too, in the Jubilee Year that began before Christmas last year. The theme of the Jubilee Year is "Pilgrims of Hope", & so we might reflect this Prisoners' Sunday, on the need to enable those who are serving sentences, all those affected by crime, & those who work in our prison system, to be able to re-find hope that they have perhaps lost.

Keep them in your prayers, reflect on ways in which you might perhaps volunteer for Pact: perhaps become a prison visitor or volunteer with the chaplaincy in your local prison. I encourage everybody to pray on Prisoners' Sunday, especially during the celebration of Mass, & also for parishes, where they can, to hold a 2nd Collection for the support of Pact, the Prison Advice & Care Trust. Pact has the most wonderful history, & holds a very special place in care for prisoners & their families. With every blessing, +Richard

Pope Leo XIV has released his Apostolic Exhortation: Dilexi te – 'I have loved you.' It focuses on the Church's love for the poor & God's special concern for those living in poverty. It affirms the ways in which the magisterium should inform our pastoral practice in accompanying the poor & vulnerable to serve the common good.

In continuity with Pope Francis's final encyclical, Dilexit nos on the human & divine love of the heart of Jesus Christ, Pope Leo makes a clear link between this document & the new Exhortation: "I share the desire of my beloved predecessor that all Christians come to appreciate the close connection between Christ's love & his summons to care for the poor. I too consider it essential to insist on this path."

"In a Church that recognizes in the poor the face of Christ & in material goods the instrument of charity, Augustine's thought remains a sure light. Today, fidelity to Augustine's teachings requires not only the study of his works, but also a readiness to live radically his call to conversion, which necessarily includes the service of charity."
