Description

Fleet Street has been immaculately refurbished and expertly redesigned to create a bustling business centre, within a stunning period building, consisting of over 45 modern and bright offices in a great location. Your new neighbours will include a wide range of companies from creative firms to accountancy businesses, offering ample opportunity to network in the communal break-out areas. High-spec and bookable meeting rooms are available along with a co-working lounge, and with such easy access to the cafes, shops and historical taverns Fleet Street has to offer we know you'll love the vibrant and dynamic feel. The original home of London's newspapers and publishers, these offices were built in the 1920s. This grand Art Deco building sits right in the middle of this iconic strip and was the former HQ for The Sun.

Location:

Ideally located in Central London, these offices are a short walk from St Paul's, Chancery Lane, Holborn and Blackfriars stations as well as City Thameslink, with the likes of Covent Garden, Farringdon and Southwark all easily accessible on foot.

Accommodation:

Various offices suites available starting from 117 sq ft.

Terms:

Available for a term to be negotiated with service charges, electricity and Wi-Fi included.

Value Added Tax:

VAT is applicable on the rent.

Business Rates:

Applicants are advised to make their own enquiries with London Borough of City of London.
