Oxford City

"The whole city has a unique buzz and atmosphere. You are sure to return most people do!"

Oxford well known for its university is by far one of the most interesting historic cities in England. No single building dominates the city. Much of the city is a tangle of 46 colleges and halls which make up Oxford University. One minute you can be in the midst of high street shopping then suddenly you are sneaking down a cobbled alleyway to be confronted by beautiful hidden medieval architecture.
