

Primum Lounge Chair

Bent Hansen expands the Primium family with a lounge chair.

Bent Hansen is now expanding the Primium collection with a lounge chair. With the four buttons in the back and the tortuous legs the lounge chair takes after its relatives in the Primium family. The Primium collection started in 2013 with the dining and conference chair, Primium Chair, and in 2014 an extension table, Primium Table, was added to the collection. This year a new laid-back family member joins the collection, Primium Lounge Chair. The chair's wide, well-padded back and seat give it a tempting look, like a standing invitation whispering: "Come on, let's lounge together!"

The entire Primium collection is designed by Bent Hansen Studio that is run by designer and CEO Henrik Hvid Hansen:

"The ambition with Primium Lounge Chair was to take the style and comfort from the Primium Chair and turn it into a lower and broader version that you can relax in while reading that book you love, watching your favorite TV show or simply dozing off for a minute or two. Primium Lounge Chair is not just a show piece furniture – it is designed to be used and loved for its comfort."

You can order Primium Lounge Chair at Bent Hansen's dealers from June 2016.

At Bent Hansen we make it a point of honour that the quality of the craftsmanship and the materials shines through, and that our furniture expresses the simplicity and honesty that is forever in fashion.

CEO and designer Henrik Hvid Hansen is the innovative force behind the company Bent Hansen. Surrounded by qualified craftsmen, he has the best opportunities to try out new ideas and test different kinds of leather and textiles.

Through it's 60 years of experience the company Bent Hansen has always considered solid workmanship of great importance. Back in 1947 Henrik Hvid Hansen's grandfather, upholsterer Svend Hansen, founded the company. Back then the key competence was restoring old furniture.

In 1966 Svend Hansen's son, Bent Hansen, took over the company. He expanded the business and started manufacturing interior for restaurants, hotels and ships.

In 1983 third generation, Henrik Hvid Hansen was ready to enter the family company. As an upholsterer like his father and grandfather before him and deeply fascinated by modern design Henrik has turned Bent Hansen into a modern design company with its own line of furniture design and home accessories.
