MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

1. The Company

The name of the company is: Irish Traditional Music Archive / Taisce Cheol Dúchais Éireann, Company Limited by Guarantee ("the Company") The Company is a company limited by guarantee, registered under Part 18 of the Companies Act 2014.3

2. Main Object

The main object for which the Company is established is to make a comprehensive collection of materials for the appreciation and study of Irish traditional music, song and dance.

3. Subsidiary Object(s)

In furtherance exclusively of the foregoing main object, the Company shall have the following subsidiary objects:

- a) The collection of all the significant materials of Irish traditional music through donation, copying and purchase of these materials;
- b) The creation of new materials through a programme of audio-visual field/studio recording of performers, lectures, public recitals, concerts and other events;
- c) The creation of new materials through research and publication and by the creation of detailed metadata about items in its collection;
- d) The secure preservation of these materials for present use and for future generations;
- e) The organisation of the materials and information through established library, archival and industry international standards;
- f) The making of its materials and information as widely available as possible to the general public, consistent with the preservation of the material and within the limits of copyright law;
- g) To do all other things as may be conducive or incidental to the attainment of the above main object.

4. Powers(s)

To the extent that the same are essential or ancillary to the promotion of the main object of the Company as heretofore set out, the Company may exercise the following powers:

1. To solicit and accept grants, donations and any other form of voluntary contributions, and to administer, manage and expend such funds or other contributions in furtherance of the objects of the Company.
2. To purchase, lease or by any other means acquire any real or personal property and to sell, manage or otherwise deal with the same, in any lawful manner.
3. To borrow and raise money in such manner and upon such security as the Company shall think fit.
4. To invest the monies of the Company not immediately required for its purposes in such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit, subject to such conditions and consents as may be required by law.
5. To accumulate capital for any purpose of the Company and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally SAVE HOWEVER that prior permission shall be obtained from the Revenue Commissioners when it is intended to accumulate funds for a period in excess of two years.
6. To grant pensions and gratuities to any person who has served the Company as an employee, or to any dependent of such person, provided that the same shall not exceed that provided by a pension scheme covered by Part 30 of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997; that such a pension scheme has been operated by the Company and that the beneficiary has been a member of the scheme while employed by the Company.
7. To subscribe or guarantee money for charitable objects.
8. To undertake and execute any trusts which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to the attainment of the main object(s) of the Company.

5. Limited Liability

The liability of the members is limited.

6. Income and property

The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main object as set forth in this Memorandum of Association. No portion of the Company's income and property shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to members of the Company. No director shall be appointed to any office of the Company paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit on money or money's worth from the Company. However nothing shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Company of:

1. Reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer or servant of the Company (not being a director) for any services rendered to the Company;
2. Interest at a rate not exceeding 1% above the Euro Interbank Offered rate (Euribor) per annum on money lent by directors or other members of the Company to the Company;
3. Reasonable and proper rent for premises demised and let by any member of the Company (including any director) to the Company;
4. Reasonable and proper out-of-pocket expenses incurred by any director in connection with his or her attendance to any matter affecting the Company;
5. Fees, remuneration or other benefit in money's worth to any Company of which a director may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the issued capital of such Company.
6. Payment by the Company to a person pursuant to an agreement entered into in compliance with section 89 of the Charities Act 2009 (as for the time being amended, extended or replaced).

7. Contribution by members on winding-up

Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company, if the Company is wound up while he or she is a member or is wound up within one year after the date on which he or she ceases to be a member, for the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before he or she ceases to be a member; the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and the adjustment of the rights of contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required, not exceeding one euro.

8. Prohibition of distribution to members on winding-up

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company but shall be given or transferred to some other charitable institution or institutions having main objects similar to the principal object of the Company and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the company under or by virtue of clause 6 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some charitable object with the agreement of the Charities Regulatory Authority. Final accounts will be prepared and submitted that will include a section that identifies and values any assets transferred along with the details of the recipients and the terms of the transfer.

9. Additions, alterations or amendments

No additions, alterations or amendments shall be made to or in the provisions of this constitution unless the same shall be approved by the Charities Regulatory Authority.

10. Keeping of accounts

Annual audited accounts shall be kept and made available to the Revenue Commissioners and/or the Charities Regulatory Authority, upon request.

(b) Expressions referring to writing shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to every mode of representing words in visible form.

(c) Unless the contrary intention appears, words or expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in the Act.

Optional provisions of the Act

2. To the extent that they are omitted from or modified by these articles, the optional provisions of the Act, as defined in Section 1177(2) thereof, are hereby excluded or modified, as the case may be.

Alteration of the Constitution

3. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and the provisions of this constitution, the Company may by special resolution alter either or both its memorandum and articles of association. Any alteration or addition so made shall be as valid as if originally contained therein.

Members

4. The Company shall have 9 members. The Board may from time to time register an increase or a decrease in the number of members.
5. The members of the Company shall be the subscribers and such persons as the Board shall admit to membership in accordance with these articles, and whose names are entered on the register of members of the Company.
6. Each member of the company shall be a director, unless appointed under article 57.

Termination of Membership

7. A member may resign his or her membership by serving notice to that effect upon the Company at the Registered Office.
8. The Board may require a member to resign his or her membership by serving notice upon the member terminating his or her membership, such notice to expire no earlier than the date of service of the notice.
9. The death or bankruptcy of a member shall terminate his or her membership.
10. The expiration of a director's term of office shall also terminate his or her membership.

Obligations of Members

11. Every member shall, as a continuing condition of membership, be bound by the provisions of the constitution of the Company and any amendment thereof, and shall observe all (if any) any rules or regulations made from time to time by the Company in general meeting or by the Board.

General Meetings of Members

12. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting, in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notice calling it and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. So long as the Company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.
13. The business of the annual general meeting shall include:
 - (a) consideration of the Company's statutory financial statements and the report of the directors, together with the report of the statutory auditors on those statements and that report;
 - (b) the review by the members of the Company's affairs;
 - (c) the authorisation of the directors to approve the remuneration of the statutory auditors;
 - (d) the election and re-election of directors;
 - (e) the appointment or re-appointment of statutory auditors;
14. All general meetings of the Company, other than annual general meetings, shall be known as "extraordinary general meetings".
15. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting and extraordinary general meetings may also be convened as provided by Section 1203 of the Act. If at any time there are not sufficient directors in Ireland capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any member of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Board.
16. General meetings of the Company shall be held in the State at such time and at such place as the Board shall appoint.
17. A meeting, other than an adjourned meeting shall be called, in the case of an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting for the passing of a special resolution, by not less than 21 days' notice, and in the case of any other extraordinary general meeting, by not less than 7 days' notice. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given. It shall be given in the manner specified in these articles to such persons as are under these articles entitled to receive such notices from the Company.
18. The notice of a general meeting shall specify –

- a) the place, the date and the time of the meeting;
 - b) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - c) in the case of a proposed special resolution, the text or substance of the resolution.
19. The statutory auditors of the Company shall be entitled to:
- a) attend any general meeting of the Company;
 - b) receive all notices of, and other communications relating to any general meeting which any member of the Company is entitled to receive;
 - c) be heard at any general meeting which they attend, on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as statutory auditors.
20. A meeting of the Company, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified at article 17 shall be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by all of the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, and the statutory auditors of the Company.
21. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. 4 members present in person, or by proxy, shall be a quorum.
22. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
23. The chairperson of the Board shall preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Company. If he or she is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
24. The chairperson may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall, if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
25. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

Proxies

26. Any member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the company shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a member or not) as his or her proxy to attend and vote instead of him or her.
27. A proxy so appointed shall have the same right as the member to speak at the meeting and to vote on a show of hands and on a poll.
28. A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.
29. The instrument appointing a proxy (the "instrument of proxy") shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his or her attorney duly authorised in writing.
30. The instrument of proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company concerned or at such other place within the State as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, and shall be so deposited not later than the following time.
 - (a) 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or
 - (b) in the case of a poll, 48 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll.
31. The depositing of the instrument of proxy referred to in article 29 may, rather than its being effected by sending or delivering the instrument, be effected by communicating the instrument to the company by electronic means, and this subsection likewise applies to the depositing of anything else referred to in article 29.
32. If articles 29 or 30 are not complied with, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
33. Subject to article 34, a vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the appointer or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given.
34. Article 33 does not apply if notice in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as is mentioned in that article is received by the company concerned at its registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

35. Subject to article 36, if, for the purpose of any meeting of a company, invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the company's expense to some only of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote at it by proxy, any officer of the company who knowingly and intentionally authorises or permits their issue in that manner shall be guilty of a category 3 offence.
36. An officer shall not be guilty of an offence under article 35 by reason only of the issue to a member, at his or her request in writing, of a form of appointment naming the proxy or of a list of persons willing to act as proxy if the form or list is available on request in writing to every member entitled to vote at the meeting by proxy.

Votes of Members

37. Where a matter is being decided (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) every member shall have one vote, in person or by proxy.
38. A vote shall take place on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands.
39. A demand for a poll may be made by –
 - a) the chairperson of the meeting; or
 - b) at least three members present in person; or
 - c) any members present, in person or by proxy, representing not less than 10% of the voting rights of members entitled to vote at the meeting.
40. Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or lost, an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against such resolution.
41. If a poll is demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairperson directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution, in relation to the matter concerned, of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
42. Where there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

43. No member shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of members of the Company, in person or by proxy, if there are monies due and outstanding by such member to the Company.
44. No objection shall be raised to the qualification to vote, in person or by proxy, of any voter except at the meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Resolutions

45. Notwithstanding article 17, a special resolution may be proposed and passed as a special resolution at a meeting of which less than 21 days' notice has been given, if the conditions specified in section 191 of the Act are satisfied.
46. The terms of any resolution (whether special or otherwise) before a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution at the meeting, provided that the resolution, as amended, will still be such that adequate notice of the same can be deemed to have been duly given.
47. Subject to compliance with the conditions in section 193 of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to attend and vote on such resolution at a general meeting shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if the resolution had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and if described as a special resolution shall be deemed to be a special resolution within the meaning of the Act.
48. When a resolution is passed at an adjourned general meeting, it will be treated as having been passed on the date of that meeting and not on any earlier date.

Minutes of General Meetings

49. The Company shall, as soon as may be after the holding of a meeting, cause minutes of the proceedings of the meeting and the terms of all resolutions to be entered in books kept for the purpose. All such books shall be kept in the same place.
50. Any minute referred to in article 44, if purporting to be signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting, shall be evidence of what occurred at the meeting.

The Board of Directors

51. The Company shall have a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 12 directors. Within this range, the Board may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of directors.

52. Vacancies for the position of director shall be filled by election at the annual general meeting of the Company.
53. No person shall be eligible for election as a director at a general meeting, unless not less than 3 days nor more than 3 months before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been left at the Registered Office –
- a) notice in writing signed by a member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, of his or her intention to propose the person concerned for such election; and
 - b) notice in writing signed by the person concerned of his or her willingness to be elected.
54. No person may be a director of the Company unless he or she has attained the age of 18 years.
55. Any purported appointment of a director without that person's consent shall be void.
56. At a general meeting of the Company, a motion for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall not be made, unless a resolution that it shall be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.
57. The Board shall have the power at any time and from time to time, to co-opt a person to be a director to fill a casual vacancy arising in the number of elected directors, or as an addition to the existing number of directors. Any director so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting and shall be eligible for election thereat but shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire at such meeting.
58. Any director appointed under the conditions at article 57 shall not become a member of the Company.

Rotation of Directors

59. The term of office served by a director shall be three years. At the annual general meeting of the Company in each year, those persons who have served a full term of office shall retire.
60. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election for a further term of office which, when aggregated with the term already served, shall not exceed six years. A "year" for this purpose shall mean the period from one annual general meeting of the Company to the next.
61. No person who has previously served two terms of office as a director may be eligible for re-election until a further period of two terms of office has passed.

62. The provisions of article 60 shall not apply in the case of those directors in place at the date of adoption of these articles of association whose aggregated terms of office exceed six years. Any such director may be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of not more than two years and may be re-appointed by ordinary resolution of the Board.
63. The provisions of article 60 shall not apply in the case of a director appointed as chairperson during his/her period of tenure. Any such director may be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of not more than three years and may be re-appointed by ordinary resolution of the Board.

Removal of Directors

64. The Company may by ordinary resolution remove a director before the expiration of his or her period of office. Such a resolution shall not be effective unless the provisions of section 146 of the Act are observed.
65. A vacancy created by the removal of a director under this article may be filled at the meeting at which he or she is removed and, if not so filled, may be filled as a casual vacancy.

Vacation of Office

66. The office of director shall be vacated if the director:
 - a) is adjudicated bankrupt or, being a bankrupt, has not obtained a certificate of discharge in the relevant jurisdiction; or
 - b) becomes or is deemed to be subject to a disqualification order within the meaning of Chapter 4 of Part 14 of the Act; or
 - c) the director resigns his or her office by notice in writing to the Company; or
 - d) the health of the director is such that he or she can no longer be reasonably be regarded as possessing an adequate decision-making capacity; or
 - e) a declaration of restriction is made in relation to the director and the Board,
 - f) at any time during the currency of the declaration, resolves that his or her office be vacated; or
 - g) the director is sentenced to a term of imprisonment (including a term that is suspended) following conviction of an indictable offence; or
 - h) the director is absent from three consecutive Board meetings without the permission of the directors.

67. When the office of the director is vacated, either by a circumstance outlined in article 66 or on completion of a term, or terms, of office, that director also ceases to become a member of the Company.

Secretary

68. The Company shall have a Secretary, who may be one of the directors

69. The Secretary shall be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit; and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by it.

70. Without derogating from the applicable statutory and other legal duties, the duties of the Secretary shall be those delegated to the Secretary from time to time by the Board.

71. The directors shall ensure that the Secretary has the skills or resources necessary to discharge the statutory and other duties associated with the position, including to maintain (or to procure the maintenance of) the Company records (other than accounting records) required to be kept in relation to the Company.

Register of Directors / Members and Secretaries

72. The Company shall keep a register of its directors / members and secretaries, and shall enter in the register the information specified in Section 149 of the Act.

Powers and Duties of Directors

73. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, which may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by these articles required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act and of these articles and to such directions, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions as may, by special resolution, be given by the Company in general meeting but no direction given by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that direction had not been given.

74. The Board may exercise all powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and assets or any part thereof.

75. Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles—

(a) to such person or committee, including the appointed CEO;

(b) by such means (including by power of attorney);

(c) to such an extent;

(d) in relation to such matters or territories; and

(e) on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

76. If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
77. The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.
78. The Board may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney appoint any Company, firm or person or body of persons, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers authorities and discretions (not exceeding its own powers) and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board thinks fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Board may think fit, and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him or her.
79. All cheques and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed by such person or persons and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time determine.

Proceedings of Directors

80. The directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.
81. Questions arising at any meeting of the directors shall be decided by a majority of votes, either in person or by proxy, and where there is an equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.
82. A director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the directors.
83. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Board may be fixed by the directors and, unless so fixed, shall be 4.

84. The directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their number but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these articles as the necessary quorum of directors, the continuing director or directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that number of or summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
85. The directors may elect a chairperson of the Board who may hold such office for a maximum of five years, renewable annually. If there is no such chairperson or, if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
86. The directors may elect a deputy chairperson of the Board who may hold such office for a maximum of three years, renewable annually. The deputy chairperson shall chair meetings of the Board in the chairperson's absence and deputise for, assist and support the chairperson in any other ways as appropriate.
87. The directors may establish one or more committees consisting of members of the Board. A committee so established may elect a chairperson of its meetings; if no such chairperson is elected or, if at any meeting the chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members of the committee present may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
88. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at a committee meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and when there is an equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.
89. A resolution in writing signed by all of the directors of the Company, or by all of the members of a committee of them, and who are for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, or, as the case may be, of such a committee, shall be as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or such a committee duly convened and held.
90. A meeting of the directors or of a committee referred to in article 87 may consist of a conference between some or all of the directors or, as the case may be, members of the committee, who are not all in one place but each of whom is able (directly or by means of telephonic, video or other electronic communication) to speak to each of the others and to be heard by each of the others. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the chairperson of the meeting then is.

Conflict of Interest

91. A director may not vote, either in person or by proxy, in respect of any contract, appointment, or arrangement in which he or she is interested and he or she shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting at which the matter is considered.

92. A director who is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company shall declare the nature of his or her interest at the Board meeting at which the question of entering into the contract is first raised, or at the next meeting held after he or she became so interested.
93. A copy of every declaration shall, within 3 days of making it, be entered into the register of disclosable interests maintained by the Company.

Minutes of Meetings

94. The Company shall cause minutes to be entered in books kept for that purpose of –
 - a) all appointments of officers made by the directors;
 - b) the names of the directors present at each meeting of its directors and of any committee of the directors;
 - c) all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of its directors and of committees of directors.
95. Such minutes shall be entered in the foregoing books as soon as may be after the appointment concerned is made, the meeting concerned has been held or the resolution concerned has been passed.
96. Any such minute, if purporting to be signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting, shall be evidence of the proceedings.
97. Where minutes have been made in accordance with articles 94 to 96 inclusive, then, until the contrary is proved-
 - a) the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened;
 - b) all proceedings had at the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly had; and
 - c) all appointments of officers made by its directors at the meeting shall be deemed to be valid.

Audit Committee

98. The Board may establish an audit committee, constituted as it shall think fit.
99. The responsibilities of an audit committee shall include:

- a) The monitoring of the financial reporting process;
- b) The monitoring of the effectiveness of the Company's systems of internal control, internal audit and risk management;
- c) The monitoring of the statutory audit of the Company's financial statements;
- d) The review and monitoring of the independence of the statutory auditors and the provision of additional services to the Company.

100. If an audit committee is established, any proposal of the Board with respect to the appointment of statutory auditors to the Company shall be based on a recommendation made to the Board by the audit committee.

Remuneration of Directors

101. Directors shall not be remunerated for acting as such. A director may however be remunerated for other services rendered to the Company, provided the conditions of Section 89 of the Charities Act 2009 are fulfilled.
102. Subject to compliance with any rules or protocols laid down by the Board, directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Board, any committee established by the Board, general meetings of the Company, or otherwise incurred in connection with attending to the business of the Company.

Use of Company Property by Directors
