success, grossing over ₹566 crore worldwide to emerge as the second highest-grossing Hindi film of 2025, the second highest-grossing Indian film of 2025 and the highest-grossing Indian romantic film.

With her parents and younger brother, Vaani waits at the court for Mahesh and his family for their scheduled marriage. However, during a phone call, Vaani learns that Mahesh has abandoned her for the daughter of a prominent businessman, choosing career ambitions over love. Devastated, Vaani faints and withdraws into deep depression, locking herself in her room for months and losing touch with her passion for writing.

Krish Kapoor, a young and talented musician, is trying to establish himself in the industry. He is emotionally unstable, aggressive, and uses music to cope with childhood trauma. After an unpleasant encounter with a journalist and a confrontation with a band member who took credit for his work, Krish is held together by his friend KV, who financially supports the band using money meant for his education. One day, Krish comes across the personal poetry of Vaani who is seeking a job as an anchor and writer at a publishing house. He is immediately drawn to the raw simplicity and depth in her writing.

Despite initial hesitation due to Krish's erratic behavior and the overwhelming environment of the music studio, Vaani agrees to collaborate with him on a song for a production house. During a creative block, Krish discovers torn pages in her notebook and realizes she is carrying emotional baggage of her own. To ease her mind, Krish takes Vaani to a cricket ground where he often finds peace. Inspired by his passion and focus, Vaani begins writing again.

Their collaboration deepens as they spend more time together in the studio, riding on Krish's bike, and attending social gatherings. Vaani slowly regains her confidence, while Krish finds clarity and balance in her presence. When Krish is publicly embarrassed by the sight of his drunken father being brought home by the police, he vents his pent-up anger at him, blaming him for his mother's death due to alcoholism. He escapes to the cricket ground, where Vaani follows and comforts him. She acknowledges how Krish has helped her heal and now she is able to write freely again. In turn, she supports him in enrolling his father into a rehabilitation center. Their emotional bond strengthens further.

Once their project is completed, Krish drops Vaani home and tells her that her life would be better without him. However, fate intervenes when they reunite at a concert, where they realize their mutual feelings.

One day, Vaani's parents see Krish dropping her off and grow concerned. Her mother fears Krish might abandon Vaani like Mahesh once did. Overwhelmed by the stress, Vaani faints and is hospitalized. Her father allows Krish to visit her, and her mother, though skeptical, asks Krish if he truly intends to stay. She tells him to marry Vaani if he genuinely loves her. Krish agrees, strengthening Vaani's belief in his love and deepening their connection.

Their lives take a dramatic turn when Vaani is diagnosed with early-onset Alzheimer's, with signs of memory loss becoming apparent just as Krish is about to leave for a concert. Her condition leads to a public outburst after unexpectedly running into Mahesh at an event. Krish receives a call from a security guard using Vaani's phone, informing him about her distressed state and abandoned belongings. He cancels his flight and finds her at the same cricket ground, attempting to play. Vaani expresses her fear of forgetting Krish and herself. He reassures her that he will always be there, creating new memories if she forgets the old ones.

On medical advice, Vaani's parents consider a change of environment. Krish volunteers to take her on a trip, and they travel to Alibaug. During this time, their love flourishes, and they create cherished memories.

Later, Krish brings Vaani to a concert. She assures him she will always cheer for him, no matter what. While she records his performance, Mahesh reappears, triggering her symptoms. She forgets the present and Mahesh attempts to exploit her vulnerability. Krish intervenes and assaults Mahesh for his actions. Vaani, unable to recognize Krish, panics and injures him in an attempt to protect Mahesh. Krish calms her down and takes her back to their guesthouse, where his father, witnessing everything, apologizes for the pain he caused in Krish's childhood and advises him not to sacrifice his life for love as he once did.

In the quiet of the guesthouse, Krish plays the piano and narrates a story of a friend whose girlfriend is slipping away. Vaani, moved, writes the song "Saiyaara" as a farewell message, promising that music will always bring her back. But due to her condition, she accidentally calls Krish by Mahesh's name, breaking his heart. When he returns from a brief moment alone, Vaani is gone.

Unable to find her despite extensive searches with her parents, Krish decides to release the song "Saiyaara," hoping it will reach her somehow. It becomes a global hit. Now a superstar, Krish tours across the country performing the song, always carrying Vaani's notebook containing her writings.

Months later, while preparing for a concert at Wembley Stadium, KV spots Vaani in a viral social media reel featuring "Saiyaara." Krish rushes to see it and learns she is in Manali. He travels to an ashram in Himachal Pradesh where Vaani has been staying. The caretaker gives him a letter from Vaani, in which she explains that she left him to let him achieve his dreams, not wanting to hold him back due to her condition. She confesses she follows his success from afar and listens to "Saiyaara" often.

Krish meets her, but she doesn't recognize him and complains about being unable to write. He reminds her of the things only they shared, recreates the cricket scene from their first collaboration, and gradually, memories start returning. Vaani eventually remembers him and passionately confesses her love.

The film ends with Krish performing at Wembley Stadium, with Vaani by his side, as they get married, having finally reunited through love, music, and memory.
