

The East Midlands Leadership Academy (EMLA) is pleased to announce the Primary Care Leaders Network Conference Uniting Primary Care Leaders from across the East Midlands

Thursday 28th March 2019, 09:30 to 16:30
Trent Vineyard Conference Centre, Nottingham
Unit 1, Easter Park, Lenton Lane, Nottingham NG7 2PX

The conference is free for colleagues working in primary care with a leadership or emerging leadership role including: GPs, practice managers, senior managers, senior administrators, chief executives, chief operating officers, managing directors, senior nurses, pharmacists and paramedics etc. We also welcome representatives from LMC's, CCG's, NHS England, Public Health and Local Authority colleagues working in Primary Care.

The ambition of the conference is for Primary Care leaders to shape a new East Midlands Primary Care Network. Designed by you, to benefit you and your organisation e.g. GP practice, GP Federation, Collaboration, GP Super-partnership, GP Alliance, groups of GP practices working across populations/place/hubs/networks. EMLA aim to support the network over the coming year.

The conference will also be an opportunity to learn how to be an even better leader.

Objectives of the day include:

- To shape a new East Midlands Primary Care Network
- To understand how EMLA can support Primary Care leaders working across the East Midlands with their leadership learning and development needs
- To inform EMLA of your leadership learning and development needs
- To network with other colleagues working at scale
- To learn how to be a better leader
- To agree leadership master classes to be delivered in your network in 2019/20

Leadership learning outcomes of the day include:

- How to influence for results and beyond your authority
- The power of strategic thinking
- Motivated workforce – Making your life easier
- How vision, alignment and executive will change the way you lead
