- LMC Committee Meeting

LMC Important Updates

Contract Compliance Week: Lincolnshire LMC are running a second "Contract Compliance Week" to gather data about inappropriate workload transfer. During the week of 21st-25th June please record all incidences of inappropriate workload transfer.

For more information please go to: www.linclmc.co.uk/news

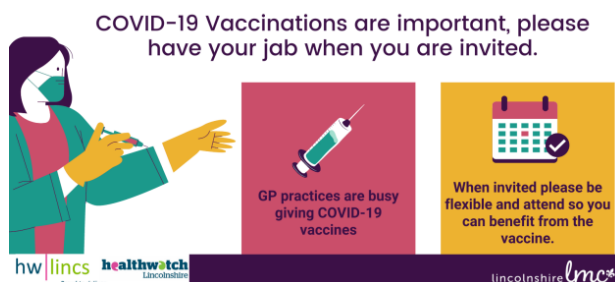

The banner features the Lincolnshire LMC logo on the left with the tagline "Supporting Lincolnshire's general practices to provide great care". To the right, it says "Coming soon!" in large yellow letters. Below that, "Contract Compliance Week" is written in white on a purple background, and "21st - 25th June" is written in white on a yellow background.

We need your help to improve patient care, let us know when you are asked to do someone else's job!

Further information will follow shortly

NEW infographics added: This week, we have added a couple more infographics to our general practice infographics page. These are titled 'COVID-19 Vaccinations' and 'Hospital appointments'. Please see thumbnails below:

COVID-19 Vaccinations

The infographic features an illustration of a healthcare worker in a green coat and yellow gloves holding a syringe. The text reads: "COVID-19 Vaccinations are important, please have your jab when you are invited." Below this are two boxes: a purple box with a syringe icon and the text "GP practices are busy giving COVID-19 vaccines" and a yellow box with a calendar icon and a checkmark, with the text "When invited please be flexible and attend so you can benefit from the vaccine." The footer includes logos for "hw | lincs healthwatch Lincolnshire" and "lincolnshire lmc".

Hospital Appointments

The infographic features an illustration of a yellow surgical mask. The text reads: "When you have a hospital appointment please attend, it is safe." Below this are three boxes: a teal box with a mask icon and the text "Hospitals take COVID-19 seriously and have moved their services around so that patients are kept safe.", a purple box with a test tube icon and the text "Your tests and consultations with specialists are important for your health", and a yellow box with a heart and ECG icon and the text "If you do not attend your health will be effected." The footer includes logos for "hw | lincs healthwatch Lincolnshire" and "lincolnshire lmc".
