

Reward and Recognition 2019

Our annual reward and recognition scheme says thank you to people that have made a significant contribution to cricket, coaching and the development of coaches.

We are delighted that you are nominating a person or a club for one of the four categories in the ECB Coach Awards 2019.

How to nominate

Nominations can be made by anyone using an online form via the link highlighted in the award categories below. The closing date for nominations is 31st May 2019. After the closing date, the local County Cricket Board will judge the entries selecting an overall winner for each category. All county winners will be invited to an ECB Coach Awards event later in the year. A national winner and two finalists for each category will be selected by an ECB panel.

Please carefully read our privacy notice below, which explains how we may use personal information we collect, how we comply with the law on data protection and what your rights are.

Who to nominate

Young Coach of the Year

A young person who is already making a difference? Who's already passing on their enthusiasm for the game and inspiring the next generation of players?

Someone who:

- Demonstrated a commitment to developing the game at grass roots and community level
- Has had a clear impact with a local school or club
- Has shown creativity and determination in their development as a coach
- 16-25 years of age

Outstanding Contribution

This person has been at the heart of things seemingly forever. They have probably played every role there is to play and without them cricket coaching in your club, in your league, your county or at your school just wouldn't be the same or just would happen at all.

Someone who:

- Provide administrative support and/or the development of coaching
- Supports the development and growth of coaches and/or coaches associations
- Has increased the number of coaches and or player participation

Coaching Club of the Year

The club that demonstrates a real commitment to player development, encouraging a wide range of people to become coaches and helping existing coaches to improve within a safe, enjoyable and supportive environment. Presented to one named representative of the club.

A club that:

- Welcomes and encourages people into coaching regardless of background.
- Actively promotes the development of coaches within a safe and supportive environment.
- Provides players with the quality and quantity of coaching that they require.
