Good evening and welcome to the Brinsford Stadium home of Wolverhampton Casuals FC for tonight's final of the The Wolverhampton Charity Cup.

The Charity cup was originally known as the Wrekin Cup and was the first cup won by Wolverhampton Wanderers in 1884. It was donated by Wolves to local leagues to play for and became known as the Charity Cup with the first winner being Willenhall Pickwick FC. The Wolverhampton Sunday League are the current custodians of the cup and competition which was first played for in 1984, coincidentally 100 years from when it was first won, between Fox & Goose and Park Rangers, Park Rangers winning 2 - 1.
