Volunteers for Human Rights

Join our virtual briefing tomorrow to learn about the legal status of Homesh and our ongoing High Court petition

Join the briefing via this Zoom link tomorrow at 14:00.

Following the recent developments in the illegal outpost Homesh, including government-led efforts to re-establish it as a settlement, we invite you to join a virtual briefing to learn about the legal status of Homesh and our ongoing High Court petition.

We recently launched a new website with detailed information about the case and we urge you to read and share this information to support our struggle for justice:

Yesh Din is required by law to make the following statement:

Yesh Din is mostly funded by foreign governmental entities - through grants devoted to the provision of humanitarian assistance and the promotion of human rights. A list of our donors is available on the Israeli Associations Register's website and on Yesh Din's website.

Yesh Din is proud to be funded by States that are committed to the rule of law, that believe the occupation is not an internal Israeli matter, and that support the defense of international humanitarian law and human rights.
