Volunteers for Human Rights

This is not what a ceasefire looks like

The ink had barely dried on the Israel/Hamas ceasefire agreement before Israel shifted the center of its war to the West Bank. The army has blocked most access points to and from Palestinian villages, and all the cities in the West Bank, and commenced a series of deadly military raids. State-backed Israeli settlers have assaulted Palestinian communities throughout the West Bank.

Warning of an Immediate Danger to Human Life and Urgent Demand for Protection of Palestinian Villagers from Severe Violence

On Friday, January 24, 2025, due to recent events and new information indicating mobilization for violent attacks, Yesh Din sent an urgent letter to Major General Avi Balut - Commander of the West Bank, and Commander Moshe Finchi - Commander of the Judea and Samaria District Police warning about the immediate danger to human life posed by violent settlers who are planning organized attacks against Palestinian villages in the West Bank.

The letter is an urgent call for immediate intervention to prevent further pogroms like those occurring in recent days and to ensure that those involved in planning these actions are held accountable.
