Yesh Din Welcomes Ziv Stahl as New Executive Director

After nearly five years of devoted leadership as the Executive Director of Yesh Din, Lior Amihai officially ended his tenure on March 31, 2022. With unwavering grace and humility, Lior guided our organization through some of its most trying times, through several rounds of armed hostilities, a seemingly never-ending election cycle, and global pandemic. Yesh Din's staff, body of volunteers and steering committee are grateful for the years we had to grow our organization under Lior's leadership, and will sorely miss his optimism, a shining light in the fight against the brutal and unrelenting occupation. We wish Lior every success in his future endeavors.

With Lior's departure comes the ushering in of a new leader, and Yesh Din is proud to welcome Ziv Stahl as Executive Director. Ziv has been a devoted staff member at the heart of the organization for the past 11 years, serving as Director of our Research Department since 2013 and Deputy Director since 2021. As Research Director, Ziv authored many of our most influential and impactful reports in the recent decade, including A Life Exposed: Military Invasions of Palestinian Homes in the West Bank (2020) and Mock Enforcement: Law Enforcement on Israeli Civilians in the West Bank (2015). She is a board member of both Zazim – Community Action and Akevot Institute for Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Research and holds an MA in political science from Tel Aviv University.

Ziv's dedication to the struggle for human rights and justice personifies the very essence of Yesh Din. Her seemingly endless knowledge and innovative thinking have helped Yesh Din to gain the reputation we boast today, as an organization at the forefront of the fight against the occupation with widely acknowledged credibility and reliability across our areas of operation. We are delighted to welcome Ziv as our new leader and confidently entrust in her our work in the years to come.

Ziv can be contacted at ziv@yesh-din.org.
