

Jason Bower

Partner, KPMG

Jason is an Audit Partner and Canadian and US Securities Partner for KPMG in B.C. He has more than 25 years of experience focused on large public companies with complex audit and accounting issues, including international operations. He has also worked in go-public and other transformational transactions across multiple industries including technology, life sciences, transportation and chemicals.