Here's how:

Step 2: Share your code

Option A

A Share your link with the code applied

Open any of the Barcelona Bridal Fashion Week email campaigns and select one of the two sharing options available: Email or WhatsApp.
A message will be generated automatically with your personalised invitation link and the code already applied.
You can share it directly or copy and paste it into the channel of your choice, customising the message as you like.

Option B

B Share your invitation code

Copy the code you will find in our email and send it through your preferred channel, together with the link to the Registration page, where they will need to enter it.

Your code has 5 uses. Once registered, you'll have 4 left to share. It stops working when the maximum is reached.
