TRAVEL

BY TRAIN

The closest station to the SEAH Stadium is Wellington Station, which is around a 10-minute walk to the ground.

It is possible to get from Ipswich to Wellington by train on the day of the game but it will take you five hours. The route is Ipswich to Liverpool Street where you take the underground to Euston. At Euston take a train to Wolverhampton where you change for a Transport for Wales train to Wellington. For example, the 08:10 and 09:10 from Ipswich will get you to Wellington at 13:06 and 14:06 respectively. If you get the earlier train from Ipswich at 07:10, the route is Liverpool Street, Euston, Birmingham New Street and Wellington, arriving at 12:06.

After the game there are trains from Wellington at 16:53 (you will need to leave the game early for this) and 17:53 arriving back in Ipswich at 22:31 and 23:32 respectively. Both journeys require a change at Birmingham New Street for Euston, connecting then with the 21:08 and 22:08 trains to Ipswich from Liverpool Street.

For those of you travelling from Manchester, there are hourly trains from Manchester Piccadilly on roughly the half-hour to Shrewsbury where you change for a train to Wellington. The journey time is around two hours 20 minutes. Note there are also options via Wolverhampton.

Whatever your travel plans, it's worth checking https://www.greateranglia.co.uk/ for updated times and any late changes.

TRAVEL FROM IPSWICH

BY CAR

The SEAH Stadium is located just outside Wellington. The postcode for the car park at the stadium is TF1 2NW.

From Ipswich, you take A14 to the M6. Continue on the M6, joining the M54 at junction 10A to Telford / Wolverhampton / Shrewsbury / A5. Continue on the M54 and at junction 6 take the A5223 exit to Telford (West) / Whitchurch / A442. At the next roundabout, take the 1st exit onto Bennetts Bank/B5061. Turn right onto Haybridge Road to the car park at the stadium (see parking below).

It is also possible to take the M6 toll. At junction T8, exit onto A460 towards M6 South/Wolverhampton. Continue on the A460 joining the M54 at the Featherstone Interchange and follow the instructions above.

The journey time is typically around four hours, but you should allow at least another hour to 90 minutes beyond the AA / Google / SatNav suggested journey time, to allow for possible delays.

TRAVEL FROM MANCHESTER

BY CAR

The SEAH Stadium is located just outside Wellington. The postcode for the car park at the stadium is TF1 2NW.

For those of you driving from Manchester, make your way to the M6 south. At junction 11A, use the left lanes to stay on the M6 (do not join the M6 Toll!). Very soon afterwards, exit the M6 at junction 11, joining the A460 towards Wolverhampton / Cannock. Continue to the Featherstone Interchange, then take the 3rd exit onto the M54 ramp to Telford. Leave the M54 at junction 6 and follow the instructions on the previous page. The journey time is one hour 40 minutes to two hours 20 minutes depending on road conditions.

If the M6 is slow, then leave at junction 15 at Stoke, and meander along the A519 and then A518 to Telford – this is considerably shorter than the motorway option, but is a bit slower under normal traffic conditions, as you will only be able to travel at the speed of the slowest vehicle ahead of you!

PARKING

AT THE GROUND

There is plenty of onsite parking at the SEAH Stadium, accessed by Haybridge Road at a cost of £5 per vehicle. The sat nav postcode is TF1 2NW.
