Griffith's Valuation

The Primary Valuation was the first full-scale valuation of property in Ireland. It was overseen by Richard Griffith and published between 1847 and 1864. It is one of the most important surviving 19th century genealogical sources.

On this form, you can search for particular place-names.
You may narrow your search by searching only within a particular county, barony, union or parish.

If you do not enter a place-name, the search will return all the place-names in the county, barony, etc. that you select from the pull-down menus. The search will take a few moments if you ask for all the place-names in a county.

The results will show a list of places that match your search, and give you the option to view the map or to see the recorded occupants.

Step 1 - Mandatory

Enter a place-name

Step 2 - Optional

Within a particular region (optional)
