

Clan Na Gael Association.

The undersigned have been appointed as a committee by the Clan Na Gael Association, for the purpose of soliciting aid from the Irish-American citizens of St. Louis and vicinity, and all liberty-loving friends, the amount collected to be forwarded to those in the North of Ireland who have undertaken to defend the poor fellows who have been falsely accused of being accessory to the murder of Lord Leitrim. We believe those men are innocent, but having learned the ways of British Crown trials when Irishmen are on trial—the modus operandi by which justice is administered—we can expect nothing but “guilty” if but a shadow of suspicion even rests upon them. To remove suspicions, and clear away doubts and fears, able counsel has been secured, and at considerable expense. The Irishmen of St. Louis are now called upon to meet on Monday evening, the 29th inst, at 7:30 o’clock, in Griffin’s Hall, 810 North Fifth, and help the good work, or send subscriptions to any of yours, respectfully,

Andrew Brown, 1313 North Twelfth street.
 John C. Talbott, 1110 Franklin avenue.
 Col. B. P. Taffee, 306 North Seventh street.
 John Grogan, 2032 O’Fallon street.
 Jeremiah Sheehan, 1017 Washington avenue.
 Daniel Sexton, with J. Kennard & Sons,
 Fourth and Vine streets.
 John S. Griffin, 810 North Fifth street.
