The early information is from the Family Bible of George Atkinson of Caledon, Ontario. It is interesting to note that Grandmother Ann Atkinson, and two babies died in September of 1866, the records do not show if Grandmother Ann had come out to Canada, but the possibility is there, and even of the three deaths resulting from an epidemic such as typhoid, common in Canada in the early days.

The Clouston Great Grandfather emigrated from the Orkney Islands to Port Hope, Ontario, sometime before 1858. Great Grandmother Fanny Clouston(nee Bourke) came from Ireland. There is no record of any other children but your great grandfather
