

Search

School:
Reary, Rosenallis
(roll number 924)

Location:
Reary More, Co. Laois

Teacher:
Ml. Dagg

FILTER STORIES

Person

All persons

Language

All languages

Filter

TITLES (71)

- Clonduff
Transcribed
- Loc Smollin
Transcribed
- Reary
Transcribed
- Rearymore Cemetery
Transcribed
- St Finian's Wells
Transcribed
- My Father's Forge
Transcribed
- Drummond
Transcribed
- Sidhean
Transcribed
- Cappaneary
Transcribed
- Graveyards
Transcribed
- Marriage Customs

Drummond.

The townland of Drummond is situated in the northern part of this parish which is called Rosenallis. It is situated in bo. Laoighise in the barony of Tinnahinch. It is bounded on the north by the townland of blonduff, on the south and east by the parish of Rosenallis, and on the west by the River Barrow.

There are thirteen houses in this townland. The majority of these houses are thatched. There are seven thatched houses and six slated ones. There are three two storied houses in Drummond namely, our own, Finlays, and Mc bormacks. There are two old ruins in this townland namely, Deavies and Langforts.

There are thirteen families in the townland. The population is about seventy people. The name most common in the townland is Redmond. There are two families of Redmonds. There is one

ARCHIVAL REFERENCE

The Schools' Collection, Volume 0823, Page 017

Image and data © National Folklore Collection, UCD. See copyright details »

Download

Report a problem to eolas@duchas.ie »

Let us know if you see incorrect or inappropriate information here.

Notice and Action Policy Statement »

ON THIS PAGE

Drummond

Share

Tweet

The town land of Drummond is situated in the northern part of this parish which is called Rosenallis. it is situated in Co.Laoighise in the barony of Tinnahinch. It is bounded on the north by the town land off Clonduff, on the south and east by the parish of Rosenallis, and on the west by the river Barrow. There are thirteen houses in this small town land. The majority of these houses are thatched. There are seven thatched houses and six slated ones. There are three two storied houses in Drummond namely, our own Finlays, and Mc Cormacks. There are two old ruins in this town land namely, Deavies and Langfords. There are thirteen families in the town land. The population is about seventy people. The name most common in the town land is Redmond. there are two families of Redmonds.

\(continues on next page\)

Transcribed by a member of our volunteer transcription project.

History | Edit »

COLLECTOR

John Redmond

Gender

male

Address

Reary More, Co. Laois

INFORMANT

Peter Redmond

Relation

parent

Gender

male

Address

Drummond, Co. Laois

LANGUAGE

English

LOCATION

Drummond

An Roinn Cultúir,
Oidhreacht agus Gaeltachta
Department of Culture,
Heritage and the Gaeltacht

STRAITÉIS 20 BLIAIN DON
GHAEILGE 2010-2030
Ár dTeanga, Ár bPobal

National Lottery

About dúchas.ie

The Main Manuscript Collection

The Schools' Collection

The Photographic Collection

Meitheal Dúchas.ie

Announcements archive

Content and data:

© 2021 National Folklore Collection, UCD

Technical solution:

© 2021 Gaiois, Fiontar & Scoil na Gaeilge, DCU

Contact:

eolas@duchas.ie

Social media:

 Facebook

 Twitter

Sign up for our mailing list!

If you would like to be informed about developments on dúchas.ie or other Gaois projects, please add your address to our mailing list.

Sign up here

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

The Irish Folklore
Commission Collection
Inscribed on the Register in 2017
Memory of the World

duchas.ie

Gaeilge

English