

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Sisters Become Brides at the Court House Yesterday Afternoon.

There was a double wedding in the marriage license room at the court house yesterday, the attaches of the office looking on and smiling their pleasure. The brides were sisters and a third sister acted as bridesmaid for each. The sisters were Elizabeth Ridley of this city and Isabella Ridley of Carbondale, Elizabeth becoming the bride of Harry Hull of Archbald and Isabella that of Robert Fitzsimmons of Carbondale. Alderman Fuller performed the ceremony.

Marriage licenses were also granted to John Nicholson and Elizabeth Williams of Scranton and to Ernest Ward and Anna Van Buskirk of Bald Mount.
