

OBITUARY

MRS. NORAH MEAGHER, ST. CONLAN'S ROAD, NENAGH

As briefly stated in our last issue, the death took place at Nenagh Co. Hospital on Saturday, March 21, of Mrs. Nora Meagher, wife of Mr. John Meagher, St. Conlan's Road, Nenagh, to the deep regret of her husband, son, daughters and sister and relatives. Deceased, who was a member of a much respected Nenagh family, the Spains of St. Conlan's road, had been in indifferent health for sometime, and her death in her late fifties caused sincere regret amongst a wide circle of friends. Her many neighbourly qualities won the fond esteem of all who knew her, and sincere sympathy was tendered to her family on her passing.

Her remains were removed to the Church of St. Mary's of the Rosary, Nenagh, on Sunday evening, and were received by Rev. M. Hillery, C.C., Nenagh. On Tuesday morning Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated for her repose. Rev. E. Hogan, C.C., was celebrant; Rev. T. Mullaly, C.C., do., deacon; Rev. J. Nelson, C.C., do., sub-deacon; Rev. M. Hillery, C.C., do., master of ceremonies. In the choir: Right Rev. Mgr. Hamilton, P.P., V.P. (presiding); Very Rev. E. Murphy, P.P., Silvermines; Very Rev. Fr. Nealon, C.S.S.P., Rockwell College.

The funeral took place to Kenyon St. churchyard after High Mass and the funeral cortege was most representative of the town and surrounding districts. Rev. E. Hogan, C.C., officiating at the graveside.

Chief mourners were: John Meagher (husband); Ned (son); Mrs. Kathleen Smith, Joan, Noreen, May (daughters); Mary J. Spain (sister); sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, and their children.

Acknowledgment

The husband and family of the late Mrs. Nora Meagher wish to thank sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, telegrams, letters of sympathy and wreaths; who called to condole and attended High Mass and funeral. Holy Mass will be offered for their intentions.

MR. PATRICK HALL, BALLYMACKAY, NENAGH

It is with regret the death is announced of Mr. Patrick Hall, which took place at his residence, Ballymackey, Nenagh, on Thursday, March 19. The deceased was of a very quiet disposition and highly esteemed.

The remains were removed to Ballinree Church on Friday evening and after Requiem Mass on Saturday the funeral took place to Ballymackey burial ground. Fr. O'Donoghue, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

Chief mourners: Mrs. Bridget Hall (widow); Patrick, William, James, Michael and Shaun (sons); Mrs. Cullinane, Mrs. Ruddy, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Gee, Mrs. Sweeney (daughters); Michael (brother); Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Hogan (sisters); Mrs. Michael Hall, Mrs. Bridle Hall (sisters-in-law); Patrick Ryan, Martin Hogan (brothers-in-law); nieces, nephews and a large circle of friends.

Acknowledgment

The family of the late Patrick Hall wish to thank very sincerely all who sympathised with them in their sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards and messages of sympathy; and those who attended the removal of the remains, Mass and funeral, and the kind neighbours who helped in every way. A special word of thanks to the clergy and Dr. O'Dwyer who attended him during his illness. They trust that this notice will be accepted by all as a token of deep appreciation.

MISS SARAH HOGAN, BALLYCARRIDO, PORTROE

It is with regret the death is announced of Mrs. Sarah Hogan, Ballycarrido, which took place at the Hospital of the Assumption, Thurles, on March 20. A sad feature of the bereavement was that her brother predeceased her by only three months.

Her remains were removed to Portroe Church on March 22. Requiem Mass was offered on the following morning and the funeral took place afterwards to Youghal cemetery. It was followed by a large number of friends and neighbours. Sympathy is extended to her brother Willie (Syracuse), nieces and nephew, friends and neighbours. May she rest in peace.

Acknowledgment

The relatives of the late Miss Sarah Hogan wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, messages of sympathy; and those who attended the removal of the remains and funeral. They trust this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.
