

Diocesan School, ELPHIN.

Under the Direction of the Rev. WILLIAM SMITH, A.M., and his Son, the Rev. CHARLES SMITH, A.M.

In consequence of the limited room in the Diocesan School-house, and the necessity of declining many applications for admission of young Gentlemen as Boarders, a comfortable House within a few yards of the Diocesan School, with airy and well-furnished Dormitories, will be opened on the 20th instant—the young Gentlemen are merely to sleep in the same, and to board with the other inmates of the School.

A Gentleman of religious habits, a Graduate of T.C.D., and Candidate for Holy Orders, has been lately engaged as Assistant in this School, and will have charge of night of the above residence—the whole to be under the watchful care of Mrs. SMITH.

Elphin, 1st Sept. 1831.
