Monday 16th July 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to all those who have already contributed to our toilet twinning campaign. The Children's Government and the Eco Team have had a big sort of all the coins in the toilet and we have counted up the total so far, which will be announced on Friday. We will also be adding in the money raised from selling the Pooping Chicken squares.

The money raised will be used to fund a school in Malawi to build their own toilet block, we will then be twinned with this school. Following ideas from the Children's Government, we are going to have a 'Blue for the Loo' day this Friday 20th July.

The children will be able to come to school wearing something blue and they will be invited to give a donation to help with our fundraising. Hopefully they will 'spend more than a penny' but any donation will be gratefully received.

We do not want you to buy blue clothes, that would not be very eco-friendly or cost effective, so just look and see what your child already has that is blue. It does not have to be a whole outfit, it could just be a blue ribbon, hat, scarf or even a blue badge. If they already have blue school uniform, or another blue outfit, that is fine. It is just a bit of fun to help us raise funds.

For further fun we will be also inviting our guest chicken in to school on Friday and checking to see where she poops. Good luck to those of you who bought a square, we will be announcing the winner on Friday!

All entries for our toilet roll collection pot competition need to be in by Friday 20th July, 9.00am. The winner will be decided and announced in Gold Book on Friday. Keep those pots coming!

Thank you for your support with this! We look forward to seeing everyone wearing Blue for the Loo on Friday.
