Dear Parents/Carers,

As a celebration of our Egyptians topic, we will be having an Egyptian Day on Friday 7th December. The children have really enjoyed the topic and we intend for this day to be a celebration of their hard work; some of the activities will include making traditional flatbreads and using clay to make cartouches. If possible, we would like the children to dress up for this occasion. It's great fun for them and helps them to become fully immersed in the history. Since we have spent some time learning about the archaeologist Howard Carter (who discovered Tutankhamun), the children could wear either an archaeologist's costume or a simple Egyptian costume depicting life in Ancient Egypt; a pharaoh, a slave, a cat, a god etc. The pictures below might give some inspiration but please do not feel pressured to provide something fancy; a simple long t-shirt and a tinfoil collar will suffice! Optional extras could include sandals, bangles or a matching tinfoil headdress!

As it is December, we suggest a long sleeved T-shirt underneath as well as shorts/tights/leggings for modesty and warmth!

As ever, many thanks for your support.

The Year 5 Team.
