

Routes into Teaching event

#TeachHud

Tuesday 22 January 2019

3pm - 6pm (drop-in event)

Lockside Building

If you're nearing graduation, already working in education or looking to start a new career, join us on campus at our drop-in Routes into Teaching event and explore all your teacher training options.

Whether you want to go into early years, primary, secondary or share your skills in the post-14 lifelong learning sector, we can help you get the professional training and experience it takes to get you on your way. The event provides an opportunity to:

- Chat to our tutors
- Meet our School Direct partners
- Get information about skills tests
- Find out about different study options
- Get top tips on putting together your application
- Find out about finance and funding.
