Inclusion Leader

Required for September 2019
Full Time

This is an exciting and newly created Senior Leadership position

Nancy Reuben Primary School is seeking an Inclusion Leader to enrich learning opportunities for our pupils and make a difference to their life chances.

The successful candidate will be an outstanding practitioner with an excellent understanding of how children learn. You will lead the Inclusion Team and be responsible for developing the strategic development of the school's inclusion agenda for children with any additional need including gifted and talented, more able as well as SEND.

You will have experience of using data, setting targets with staff, monitoring, evaluating and recording pupil progress and will work very closely with parents, pupils and teachers.

Driven by a passion for inclusion and pupil success, you will have an excellent track record of work in this area and be able to inspire and motivate staff and pupils to perform at the highest possible levels.

This is a great opportunity for an energetic, dynamic and free-thinking teacher, who wants to make a significant and rapid impact.

We can offer:

- An inclusive and caring culture where every child is encouraged to fulfil their potential
- A positive and innovative working environment
- A strong commitment to supporting professional development
- The flexibility to create a curriculum, tailored specifically to the needs of the children, to ensure learning is fun, creative and cross-curricular

Successful candidates will be required to hold or will be supported to complete The National Award for SEN Coordination (NASENCO).
