A super week with some fantastic learning. It has been lovely to see quite a few children joining in Silly Sock day to day to help raise awareness and money for Autism East Midlands. Any money donations will still be accepted on Monday.

Following our visit from our Education Welfare Officer this week we will be writing to some families with regard to their child's attendance and we hope this is viewed positively so that we can work together to improve attendance and promote better learning. Letters to families who this applies to will be sent home early next week.

Reminders:

Parent Governor Election

The deadline for votes for the Parent Governor Election is Monday 8th April, by the end of the school day. The person elected will serve a four-year term of office. Please ensure you read the candidates' personal statements and cast your vote before the deadline.

Swimming

There will be no school swim on Monday 8th April as this is during the pool half-term.

Term-time absence

If your child will be absent from school during term-time (we are not able to approve absence for family holidays) please ensure that permission is sought from Mrs Ellis in advance. This includes absence for music or dance exams etc.

School Field

Unfortunately, our mole problem is still on-going, so the field continues to be out of bounds.

Children will receive regular reminders in school that the field is out of bounds, but please ensure that they also respect this before and after school.

Easter Service

Our Easter service will be held at the church at 1pm next Friday afternoon. Please join us if you can. If you are at church, you may take your child home after the service, but please ensure that your child's teacher records that you are taking them home.
