Individual Liberty

Independence

- Building confidence in our ability to succeed
- In exercising our individual liberty in a responsible and productive manner we are fulfilling a fundamental value of our British society

The Rule of Law

Responsibility

- Meeting school expectations in everything we do through honesty and integrity
- Taking responsibility for our own actions
- The rule of law in British society is reflected in our school in our behaviour policy and high expectations

Democracy

Participation

- Being involved in our learning
- Contributing to our wider community
- Working together effectively and efficiently
- Democracy is a British value where we listen to the ideas of others in order to understand and abide by the democratic process and to make things fair
