St. Anselm's Catholic Primary School

3/05/19

Dear Parents

A brief newsletter this week! The summer term has got off to a good start. We enjoyed a wonderful assembly from Year 1 on Wednesday and the children reminded us of the value of a smile. It's free but priceless. As we all work hard to prepare for all the events that the summer term brings, it's important to remember to keep smiling and to be kind to each other.

We are very pleased with our new entrance. We now just need to train everybody to use it! The car park gate is now only for vehicles. All access to the office, when the main playground gates are closed, should now be through the new pedestrian gate. When leaving the office, parents should also use the new path, rather than leaving through the car park. Phase two of the project will ensure that there is no entry or exit through the car park for pedestrians.

We will be having a whole school photo taken on Monday 3rd June.

The next Place2Be coffee morning for parents will be after drop-off on Thursday 6th June.

Attendance figures since September:

|                         |                      |
