As they all know our Year 6 will do their SATS this week, they are welcome to come into school for 7:45am for breakfast, free of charge. Year 2 will do their SATS next week. There is no set timetable for this, children will sit them in small groups during the week.

The netball team finished their season last week at the Bolton Championships, they again performed very well, being great ambassadors for the school.

Could we have all sports kits returned as soon as possible, we haven't got all football and cross country kits back from recent events.
