Dear Parent/ Carer

The teachers of the children in Year 3 have planned a visit to Yorkshire Wildlife Park. The date is Friday 5th July 2019

The children will leave school at 9.00am and return by 3.20 pm.

They will need a packed lunch and a drink in reseal able container. (No cans or glass bottles please.)

If your child is in receipt of free school meals and you would like them to have a packed lunch, please order at the school office by Wednesday 3rd July

The cost of the visit is £16.50: This includes Travel £8.00 and Park entrance fee £7.00 + £1.50 educational session.

Please be aware that payments are viewed as Parental contributions, but if insufficient funds are received the visit will not take place.

The deadline date for contributions is Friday the 28th June.

The children will explore the park in small groups and will take part in teacher led activities. The children will need to be dressed in full school uniform with sensible footwear, as they will be outdoors most of the day. Please ensure that children wear weather appropriate clothing e.g. waterproof clothing and sun protection!

If you wish your child to take part in the visit could you please complete the slip below along with the accompanying consent form.

Please pay via the Sim's pay system, the post office or cash into the school office, as soon as possible.

Please be advised that no child will be allowed out of school without written consent.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Allen. Miss Fenton

Yorkshire Wildlife Park

I give permission for my child-----Class-----
