Dear Parents/Carers,

On Friday 7th June 2019, we will be joining in with lots of schools, nurseries and organisations across the UK and will be going pyjama crazy. On this day, we will be celebrating the magic of bedtime stories – we hope you are as excited as we are!

We want every child to experience the warmth, joy and comfort of bedtime reading. We do not want a single child to miss out on the amazing benefits of reading together, because we know what a different it makes to life chances. Too many children miss out on bedtime stories but we are determined to reach them all to give them the very best start.

We want children to spend the day wearing their pyjamas and taking part in reading activities to help us to raise money for the BookTrust. We are asking all families to donate just £1 so that we can help to make sure that all children experience the joy of bedtime stories.

There is nothing better than spending the day in PJs, so please give us your full support on June 7th and make sure that no child misses out on the magic of bedtime stories. You can even get involved yourself by bringing, or collecting, your children in your pyjamas too.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Davis
Assistant Head Teacher
