

7th June 2019

Dear Parents / Carers,

We've had a really exciting and busy week in school since returning from half term, I don't know how we've packed everything in to one week!

On Tuesday I had the special treat of joining Y1 and Y2 on their visit to the centre of Leeds to look for owls! We completed the Leeds Owl Trail looking at all the important buildings in the city centre. The children were all incredibly well behaved and everyone had a fantastic time. I would like to say a huge thank you to all the staff that organised this visit as an awful lot of time and effort went into making it such a success.

On Tuesday afternoon we welcomed Google into school to do an assembly on internet safety for children in KS2. As it was 'Google' the assembly was hugely interactive and entertaining for the children but with the added bonus of the serious message of keeping safe online. I was in the assembly with one of our governors and we were both impressed with the children's knowledge of internet safety.

Today is a very strange day in school with children and staff all dressed in pyjamas for the day! We're doing this in aid of Book Trust a charity which aims to ensure that all children have the opportunity for a bedtime story. You will know from previous newsletters that this is a cause I am passionate about; it's such a lovely experience to share with your child and where most children develop a love of books. We will be reading bedtime stories in school today but hope everyone will do the same at home at bedtime tonight. Today we have raised money for Book Trust so as soon as we have a total we will let you know.

Next Friday morning the governing body are holding a coffee morning to collect parental views on the school. As we've mentioned previously there will be bacon sandwiches and veggie sausage sandwiches as an incentive to come. The coffee morning starts straight after assembly at 9.30 so please come if you can.

Reminder: Don't forget Sports Day for reception to Y6 is on Tuesday 18th June (weather permitting) starting at 1.30pm on the school field. More details about this event will follow next week.

Have a good weekend
