Better value

Great news! School meals are now even better value.

We have worked closely with your child's school to ensure that you receive better value for money. A copy of the menu will be available for you on the school website and will commence in September.

The onsite catering team welcome any suggestions you may have regarding the menu choice, and we invite you to come and speak to us about any specific dietary requirements your child may have.

Please either speak directly to the school alternatively you can contact Sasha Walters – Area Manager on SashawW@mellors.co.uk
