FESTIVAL CONCERTS at the ALBERT HALL

Saturday 13 July SENIOR GROUPS

Enjoy a thrilling performance given by all the workshop groups plus our special guests – solo clarinettist Oliver Lee, RNCM string quartet and organist.

Marvel at the sound of the mighty Binns organ and the spectacular concert finale – an arrangement of 'Light of the Seven' from the acclaimed Game of Thrones.

Tickets: £8 (£4 children/students) throughout the hall. Available in advance from MfE and on the door.

Sunday 14 July JUNIOR GROUPS

A free concert showcasing our junior instrumental groups plus THE BIG FAMILY SING choir. An enjoyable concert for all!

FESTIVAL FRINGE

Don't miss two days of free entertainment at the Sky Mirror, Nottingham Playhouse. Enjoy a barbecue from the Playhouse Bar and Kitchen while listening to local youth groups including the Nottingham Youth Jazz Orchestra and City Music Hub's Band Factory. There will also be interactive performances from a steel band and Capoeira Nottingham – come and give it a go! And on Sunday, for those of you who like a good quiz, take part in our FESTIVAL MUSIC TRAIL, a walking quiz with clues situated around all the venues.

WORKSHOPS

All workshops are led by conductors and instrumentalists with national reputations for excellence. The music has been carefully selected to develop young musicians' performance skills - singers and instrumentalists alike. Outstanding players from the Royal Northern College of Music will join the senior instrumental groups.

Music for the string, wind band and percussion groups will be sent out in advance of the Festival Weekend to enable players to play through their own part. No preparation is required for the singing or junior percussion workshops.

To enrol, please complete the form overleaf. For further information please contact the MfE office on 0115 958 9312, email admin@music-for-everyone.org.

STRING EXPERIENCE

Saturday - SENIOR STRINGS (Grade 5 - 8+) Sunday - JUNIOR STRINGS (Grade 2 - 4)

Who is it for?

For violinists, violists, cellists and bassists aged 8-21, grouped by ability, to enjoy an exploration of repertoire, technique and performance through the expertise of professional conductors - Chris George (senior group), Rowan Cozens (junior group).

What are we playing?

SENIOR ORCHESTRA: Led by a professional string quartet the senior orchestra will study Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No 3 and movements from Grieg's Holberg Suite. The workshop day will culminate in a Festival Concert at the Albert Hall, ending with a spectacular performance of 'Light of the Seven' from Game of Thrones. This will feature all performers plus the mighty Binns organ and Steinway grand piano!

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA: Music especially chosen for young players including the well known Sailor's Hornpipe, as performed at the Last Night of the Proms!

WIND BAND EXPERIENCE

Saturday - SENIOR BAND (Grade 5 - 8+) Sunday - JUNIOR BAND (Grade 2 - 4)

Who is it for?

This unique playing day for all wind band players (brass, woodwind and percussion) aged 8 to 21, grouped according to ability, offers a rich experience in technique, performance and repertoire through the expertise of top clarinettist and conductor, Chris Swann.

What are we playing?

SENIOR WIND BAND: Featuring 'star of the future' clarinettist, Oliver Lee, from the Royal Northern College of Music, the senior band will study Weber's Concertino and the lively overture, A Huntingdon Celebration written by legendary band composer, Philip Sparke.

The workshop day will culminate in a Festival Concert at the Albert Hall, ending with a spectacular performance of 'Light of the Seven' from Game of Thrones. This will feature all performers plus the mighty Binns organ and Steinway grand piano!

JUNIOR WIND BAND: Music especially chosen for instrumentalists at the start of their playing journey including Aztlán by Victor López.

Chris Swann

PERCUSSION EXPERIENCE

Saturday - SENIOR GROUP (Grade 4+) Sunday - JUNIOR GROUP (Grades 2 - 3)

Who is it for?

SENIOR PERCUSSION GROUP

This unique workshop gives Grade 4+ percussionists (aged 8-21) an opportunity to perform using the full range of tuned percussion - glockenspiel, xylophone, vibraphone, marimba - as well as timpani and drum kit. The workshop, led by professional percussionist, Jackie Kendle, will include improvisation and popular repertoire, which will be performed in the Festival Concert.

JUNIOR PERCUSSION GROUP

Do you play a percussion instrument already? Would you like to try out the full range of tuned percussion (glockenspiel, xylophone, vibraphone, marimba) plus timpani and drum kit? Do you want to improve your playing and improvisation in a friendly workshop? If you've answered 'yes', this workshop is for you!

Jackie Kendle

SINGING EXPERIENCE

Saturday - SENIOR GROUP (aged 12 - 25) Sunday - BIG FAMILY SING (children aged 5 - 11 + adults)

Who is it for?

SENIOR SINGING GROUP

Singers from Year 7 to aged 25 who would like to experience Gospel Singing inspired by one of the UK's finest gospel singers, Freddie Kofi - learn new ways of bringing a song 'to life'. Improve your technique, explore classical repertoire and perform in the Festival Concert with its spectacular finale 'Light of the Seven' from Game of Thrones, featuring all festival groups plus the mighty Binns organ and Steinway grand piano!

BIG FAMILY SING!

Children aged 5 - 11 with their mums, dads, grandparents, carers, aunts and uncles - the whole family, friends too! Come and enjoy a fun afternoon of singing together, led by experienced choral animateur and vocalist, Helen Hayes, then give an informal concert at the Albert Hall at 4pm.

COME AND TRY!

Saturday and Sunday - ENDANGERED INSTRUMENTS Sunday - PERCUSSION & SAMBA

If you play piano or keyboard (Grade 5+), come and try the mighty Binns ORGAN (one of the country's finest) at the Albert Hall, guided by a professional organist.

Do you play an instrument already? Would you like to have a go on an ENDANGERED INSTRUMENT - French horn, oboe, bassoon, double bass or tuba? These are all essential to bands and orchestras. Windblowers (Nottingham's premier music shop) will be in the Albert Hall with a variety of instruments for you to discover and try.

Heard of Samba drumming but not quite sure what it's all about? Come and enjoy being part of the FESTIVAL SAMBA BAND and parade from the Albert Hall to the Sky Mirror in true Samba style!
