

Come and Play!

A fun day of classic and new games for families

29TH JUNE - 11AM - 4PM

At a temporary outdoor playground in Sheffield city centre.
Site Square, opposite contemporary art space Site Gallery.

PLAY TRADITIONAL AND BRAND NEW GAMES CREATED BY SHEFFIELD SCHOOLCHILDREN AND PAPER FINCH THEATRE.

Be a part of this exciting day of experimentation and play and help us turn Site Square into an outdoor playground. Games, Music and FUN all day

FREE - Everyone welcome

'A Sense of Play' is inspired by folklorists Iona and Peter Opie. From the 1950s they spent their career recording how children played street and playground games. This event is part of 'Playing the Archive': Memory, Community and Mixed Reality Play project – a partnership between ; the University of Sheffield, UCL, the Bodleian Libraries, the V&A Museum of Childhood, the Digital Humanities Institute, Sheffield and Site Gallery. The project funded by the ESRC. Supported by the City of Ideas