

Order, order...

Last Friday, 3 of our school council members went to Nottingham Council House to join the Nottingham Junior Parliament. The children learnt how a parliament debate works and then took part in 2 debates in the chamber. Needless to say, our children were a credit to us.

'Taking Care' at Barnby Moor Care Home

Our Year 6 children, along with Mrs Cherrill and Mrs Edmunds, spent a day creating some beautiful art work, with the residents, for Armed Forces Day. Everyone had a great day.

A Great Day Out at Headingley

Everyone who attended the Cricket World Cup game yesterday had a fab day. Some children went on a train for the first time and for most, it was their first experience of a live cricket game.
